History of New Hampshire's Red Book Manual

The state government's biennial Red Book Manual was initiated 90 years ago by the 1887 Legislature to expedite information on New Hampshire's public affairs.

The state government had for a century depended upon the privately-compiled annual New Hampshire Registers to disseminate election statistics and legislative details. But the publishers of the pocket-sized Registers had been forced to develop other types of information to support their annual editions, when the Legislature and the state government in general, went onto a biennial basis in 1879. So this was the reason why the 1887 Legislature voted to compile and publish its own vital state information, and attempt to resurrect the Granite State historic lore for which the Registers had long been popular.

The Red Book was launched for the 1889 session of the General Court, and it was an enterprising and amazing Democrat who instilled the biennial Red Book with worthwhile meaning and invaluable historical data. Hosea Ballou Carter of Hampstead, a political jack-of-all-sorts, compiled the early editions, and his 1891 issue continues most remarkable to this day. Not only was it the greatest single source of state government lore ever produced in New Hampshire, but it was the only blue-hued Red Book ever published.

Democrat Carter, presumably named for the Reverend Hosea Ballou of Richmond, N. H., a pioneer patriarch of the Universalist Church, was a juggler of political mathematics, among his varied ventures.

The Republican Legislature often hired Carter to revamp political districts, to safeguard party control of both the House of Representatives and the Senate. As attest to his political proclivities, it is recorded that in 1880, he served as chairman of the Committee on Credentials in the Republican State Convention, and the following day he filled the same position in the Democratic State Convention.

Carter was a self-styled swinger who, in retrospect, it must have been a delight to know. He had no formal schooling, labelled himself "Hozee," and at 58, when given to wearing a skull cap in public, wrote of himself:

Hozee has hustled as a cyclopedia canvasser, a patent medicine manufacturer, a sewing machine agent, a safe salesman, a desk drummer, a typewriter expert, an editor, a statistician, a detective, a railroad commissioner, a publisher, a politician, a candidate, an office-holder, and even now (1892) he is hustling as chief clerk of the newly created New Hampshire Bureau of Labor.

Carter's personal pride was production of the handsomely illustrated 1892 "Town and Country Atlas of New Hampshire," sixteen by eighteen inches in size, which has become a prized collectors' item and currently commands a price in excess of $100. His blue-covered Red Book of 1891 (a red-covered edition was later printed because of demand for its valuable contents) continues to be an amazing compendium covering two centuries of legislative records, in particular, and the state government in general. Historians have come to consider it a fitting memorial to Hozea Ballou Carter and his incomparable contribution to the lore of Granite State officialdom.

Carter's 1891 Red Book was personally copyrighted and sold to the Legislature. It listed himself as "Actuary of Political Statistics and Editor of State Manual," a self-sponsored title never again displayed in his later editions.

The 1891 Red Book featured colored maps showing how Carter gerrymandered the various House and Senate, and Executive Council, districts, which the 1891 Legislature enacted, to reinsure Republican dominations in state affairs. He also juggled a new law on House seats, as a new constitutional amendment terminated district groupings for towns of less than 600 population, and put all the tinier towns on a part-time representation basis.

Carter's 1891 gerrymandering proved its worth. While the Republican majorities had up to then declined to 186-170 in the House and 14-10 in the Senate, they respectively soared to 214-134 and 15-9 in 1893, and to 264-99 and 21-3 in the 1895 session.

Democrat Carter's Republican service as a political mathematician covered many years. The Granite Monthly magazine of 1886 told how he "displayed his statesmanship," in a readjustment of House seats, when an 1877 constitutional amendment changed the apportionment base from poll taxpayers to population. The Legislature was then required to district smaller towns to qualify for the 600 population minimum for a full-time House seat, but there was a loophole by which it could grant part-time seats to precincts of less than 600, if they could not be advantageously grouped.

Three dozen tinier towns won part-time representation and Carter neatly gerrymandered the Democratic units into the "off" sessions, while those of Republican persuasion sat in the biennial sessions when a United States Senator was to be elected by the General Court (a custom which continued until 1914 when such officials became elected by the people.)

The 1891 Red Book listed New Hampshire's good luck in having second and third class United States Senators, thanks to a lottery which launched the national Senate in 1789.

John Langdon, Portsmouth's 37-year-old shipbuilder and Revolutionary War hero, and the Reverend Paine Wingate, Stratham's 39-year-old farmer, clergyman and political patriot, the state's first federal Senators, played leading roles in this lottery, and came out winners. Langdon, chosen as the first Senate President pro tem, and Wingate were designated to handle a Senate seating lottery, along with Tristram Dalton, a Massachusetts Senator. This was the device used for initial allotment of two, four and six-year terms, so that one-third of the Senate membership would ever afterward come up for election in each biennium.

Langdon and Wingate survived the first one-third of names drawn, which was for the least desirable two-year terms, and Dalton fell into this first class. Wingate came up in the second class of the lottery, for a four-year term while Langdon was the most fortunate, lasting into the third class of the drawings, for a six-year term.

The biennial Red Books have always furnished election tabulations and state government data in general. But the early editions pioneered historic information never before available in such popular form. They also presented statistics on the Legislature, and the state and federal governments, delving back to 1680 creation of New Hampshire's provincial government, and its constitutional life founded in 1776.

The first Red Book of 1889 featured constitutional lore. It presented the temporary constitution of 1776; the first proposed permanent constitution of 1778 (of five pages) which the people voted down, and the permanent constitution as finally ratified in 1783, after two more rebuffs by the people (of 24 pages). Interestingly, this first edition listed the names of 3,000 Justices of the Peace then in service within the state. There was also a tabulation showing that 91 per cent of the 99,432 names on the voter checklists cast ballots for Governor in 1888, a record never since equalled in New Hampshire.

The 1893 Red Book listed New Hampshire's participation in all the quadrennial national political conventions, which began in 1831. This issue also contained details of the 436 land grants covering two centuries, out of which the state's cities and towns developed.

The 1893 edition presented an initial report on the portraits which have been a distinctive feature of the Capitol, since nearly 200 of them were mustered in the decade following the Civil War by Secretary of State Benjamin Franklin Prescott of Epping (later Governor), long an ardent champion of Granite State historic life. The portraits were crammed ceiling-high upon the walls of both the House and Senate chambers; into the somewhat small offices of the then few state agencies, and later even over into the new State Library building when it opened in 1895.

Almost difficult to imagine these days, there were 27 portraits upon the Senate walls, and another 21, many of them next to the ceiling, in the House chamber. All this changed, of course, when the State House was doubled in size, for a second time, in 1910, and provided another three stories of spacious corridors for the paintings of Governors, war heroes, and other political figures.

The 1895 Red Book presented 40 pages of biographical sketches of prominent state personages of the previous century. And the 1897 edition offered a condensed outline of the state's provincial and colonial public life, up through the Revolutionary War period.

An important compilation of the rolls of the New Hampshire men who dominated the Battle of Bunker Hill at Boston covers 60 pages of the 1899 Red Book. This was the work of George C. Gilmore, Manchester historian and publicist, by order of Governor Charles H. Sawyer of Dover and his Executive Council.

Gilmore's purpose was to furnish a first complete listing of the Granite Staters who participated in that immortal confrontation with the British, to be inscribed upon a tablet at the site. But Massachusetts officials refused to permit such special tribute to the New Hampshiremen. So Gilmore's compilation was inserted into the 1899 Red Book, with his expressed hope the names would become emblazoned upon the State House lawn in Concord, which never bore fruit.

The 1901 Red Book is of special historic value for it identifies the 85 Civil War battle flags which grace the Capitol's main entrance Hall of Flags. They were permanently encased by order of the 1899 Legislature, and the exhibit included two flags from the brief Spanish American war, then just terminated.

The display covers regiments numbered from one through eighteen, but there are no emblems from the 17th Regiment because it was merged into the 2nd Regiment before going to the front. Single units of heavy and light artillery, and cavalry, are also identified with battle flags, while the state's three companies of sharpshooters were part of the First and Second Regiments.

The 85 tattered and battle torn emblems hang as tribute to the 32,750 Granite State men, nearly 10 per cent of the population, who served in that 1861-1865 conflict to preserve the Union of the United States.

There were hundreds of other flags carried by the New Hampshire forces in the Civil War, but the State House did not have room for them all, so the 1864 Legislature voted the following restrictions, to be carried out by the House and Senate doorkeepers:

They shall procure and tastefully display in the rotunda beneath Representatives Hall, the state regimental ensigns tattered in battle, such to bear the number of its respective regiment, and to be there preserved forever, as relics of war.

The 1866 Legislature forbade removal of any of the flags "from the State House, except to prevent their destruction from some unusual cause." It seems that patriotic groups had been borrowing them for special public events.

It was on May 23, 1868 that the flags were placed on permanent display in the rotunda, long called Doric Hall because of its columns, but ever since known as Hall of Flags.

The 1903 Red Book included rolls of New Hampshire's Revolutionary soldiers in Massachusetts regiments, etc., and other additions to Gilmore's important statistics of the 1899 edition.

The 1905 manual launched the custom of listing the political committees and platforms of parties participating in the biennial state elections, which continues to this day.

The 1909 edition contained two unusual features. One was a reprint of an 1829 "Catechism of the History of New Hampshire," of 43 pages, compiled by John Farmer, Concord druggist and the state's first official historian. The other was a general index of the first ten issues of the Red Book, a service never since implemented.

The 15th issue of the Red Book in 1917 was a monumental production. It reflected the enthusiasm for history of Hobart Pillsbury of Manchester, youthful deputy Secretary of State, who a decade later authored an updated four-volume history of the state.

This 1917 edition comprised nine sections; updated much of the statistics of Carter's 1891 classic, and for a first time presented a thumbnail history of each state agency, all of which made this book the first to exceed 500 pages since the 1891 issue.

The 1921 Red Book contained a rearrangement of the Capitol's portraits, by then numbering more than 220, with detailed identification.

The Declaration of Independence is generally regarded as one of the most famous documents in the history of the world. On June 10, 1776, the Continental Congress appointed a committee, consisting of Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston to draft a Declaration of Independence.

Jefferson wrote out a rough draft of the Declaration, which was carefully revised by the committee and presented to Congress for adoption. After some further slight revisions by that body, it was adopted on July 4, 1776, at Philadelphia.

The parchment with the original signatures was deposited with the Department of State when the government was organized in 1789.

The original Declaration of Independence was transferred from the Department of State by direction of the late President Warren G. Harding to the Library of Congress. The Declaration was moved from the Library of Congress in 1952 at the direction of Congress and transferred to the National Archives Building where it rests today.

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED JULY 4, 1776

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people should relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither; and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do in the name, and by authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies, are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States, may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

The United States Constitution is the oldest federal constitution in existence. It was so well framed that it has served as the basis for this government for a century and a half. Only once has it been seriously endangered, this being during the Civil War. Many of its principles have been adopted by other countries.

The Constitution was the outgrowth of a convention of delegates from the different states that met in Philadelphia in May, 1787, Rhode Island not being represented. George Washington presided over the convention, which lasted from May to September.

The Constitution was then submitted to the then existing states for ratification, with a provision that it should become effective when ratified by nine states. New Hampshire was the ninth state to ratify, June 21, 1788, and the Constitution went into effect in 1789.

The states ratified the Constitution in the following order: Delaware, Dec. 7; Pennsylvania, Dec. 12, and New Jersey, Dec. 18, 1787; Georgia, Jan. 2; Connecticut, Jan. 9; Massachusetts, Feb. 6; Maryland, Apr. 28; South Carolina, May 23; New Hampshire, June 21; Virginia, June 26, and New York, July 26, 1788; North Carolina, Nov. 21, 1789, and Rhode Island, May 29, 1790.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The Constitution originally consisted of a Preamble and seven Articles, and in that form was completed and signed at a convention of the States, Sept. 17, 1787. The Government under the Constitution was declared in effect on the first Wednesday in March, 1789.

sentative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

Filling of vacancies in representation — 4. When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

Selection of officers; power of impeachment — 5. The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

•SECTION 3

The Senate — [1. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.]

Classification of Senators; filling of vacancies — 2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one-third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments [until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.]

Qualification of Senators — 3. No person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

Vice President to be President of Senate — 4. The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.

*The first paragraph of section three of Article I of the Constitution of the United States, and so much of paragraph two of the same section as relates to filling vacancies are amended by the seventeenth amendment to the Constitution.

Selection of Senate Officers; President pro tempore — 5. The Senate, shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the absence of the Vice-President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

Senate to try impeachment — 6. The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in case of impeachment. — 7. Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust, or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

SECTION 4

Control of congressional elections — 1. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

*Time for assembling of Congress — 2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different day.

SECTION 5

Each House to be the judge of the election and qualifications of its members; regulations as to quorum — 1. Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

Each House to determine its own rules — 2. Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behavior, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

Journals and yeas and nays — 3. Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

Adjournment — 4. Neither House, during the Session of Congress shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6

Compensation and privileges of Members of Congress — 1. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

Incompatible offices; exclusions — 2. No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his continuance in Office.

SECTION 7

Revenue bills to originate in House — 1. All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

Manner of passing bills; veto power of President — 2. Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall before it becomes a Law, be presented to the President of the United States; If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his Objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their Journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.

Concurrent orders or resolutions, to be passed by President — 3. Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill.

SECTION 8

*General powers of Congress.

The Congress shall have Power — 1. To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States.

Titles of nobility not to be granted; acceptance by government officers of favors from foreign powers — 8. No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any office of Profit or Trust under them, shall without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State.

SECTION 10

Limitations of the powers of the several States — 1. No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal; coin Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts; pass any Bill of Attainder ex post facto Law, or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts or grant any Title of Nobility.

State imposts and duties — 2. No State shall, without the Consent of the Congress, lay any Imposts or Duties on Imports or Exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection Laws; and the net Produce of all Duties and Imposts, laid by any State on Imports or Exports, shall be for the Use of the Treasury of the United States; and all such Laws shall be subject to the Revision and Control of the Congress.

Further restrictions on powers of State — 3. No State shall, without the consent of Congress, lay any duty of Tonnage, keep Troops, or Ships of War in time of Peace, enter into any Agreement or Compact with another State, or with a foreign Power, or engage in War, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1

The President; the executive power — 1. The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice-President, chosen for the same Term, be elected, as follows:

Appointment and qualifications of presidential electors — 2. Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress; but no Senator or Representative or Person holding an Office of Trust or Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

Original method of electing the President and Vice-President — **[The Electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by Ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an Inhabitant of the same State with themselves. And they shall make a List of all the Persons voted for, and of the Number of Votes for each; which List they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the Seat of the Government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall, in the Presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the Certificates, and the Votes shall then be counted. The Person having the greatest Number of Votes shall be the President, if such Number be a Majority of the whole Number of Electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such Majority, and have an equal Number of Votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately chuse by Ballot one of them for President; and if no Person have a Majority, then from the five highest on the list the said House shall in like Manner chuse the President. But in chusing the President, the Votes shall be taken by States, the Representation from each State having one Vote; A quorum for this Purpose shall consist of a Member or Members from two-thirds of the States, and a Majority of all the States shall be necessary to a Choice. In every case, after the Choice of the President, the Person having the greatest Number of Votes of the Electors shall be the Vice-President. But if there should remain two or more who have equal Votes, the Senate shall chuse from them by Ballot the Vice-President.]*

Congress may determine time of choosing electors and day for casting their votes — 3. The Congress may determine the Time of chusing the Electors, and the Day on which they shall give their Votes; which Day shall be the same throughout the United States.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

The following amendments from articles I to X inclusive were proposed at the first session of the first Congress of the United States, which was begun and held at the city of New York on the 4th day of March, 1789, and were adopted by the requisite number of states, as follows: New Jersey, Nov. 20, 1789; Maryland, Dec. 19, 1789; North Carolina, Dec. 22, 1789; South Carolina, Jan. 19, 1790; New Hampshire, Jan. 25, 1790; Delaware, Jan. 28, 1790; Pennsylvania, March 10, 1790; New York, March 27, 1790; Rhode Island, June 15, 1790; Vermont, Nov. 3, 1791, and Virginia, Dec. 15, 1791.

The following preamble and resolution preceded the original proposition of the amendments, and as they have been supposed by a high equity judge to have an important bearing on the construction of those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the states having, at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the legislature of the several states, as amendments to the constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three-fourths of the said legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution, namely:

ARTICLE I

Freedom of religion, of speech, of the press, and right of petition — Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II

Right of people to bear arms not to be infringed — A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

ARTICLE III

Quartering of troops — No Soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV

Persons and houses to be secure from unreasonable searches and seizures — The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V

Trials for crimes; just compensation for private property taken for public use — No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI

Civil rights in trials for crime enumerated — In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defence.

ARTICLE VII

Civil rights in civil suits — In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried in a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

ARTICLE VIII

Excessive bail, fines and punishments prohibited — Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

ARTICLE IX

Reserved rights of people — The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE X

Powers not delegated, reserved to States and people respectively — The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

[The eleventh amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the third Congress on March 5, 1794, and was declared in force January 8, 1798.]

ARTICLE XI

Judicial power of United States not to extend to suits against a State — The Judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by Citizens of another State, or by Citizens or Subjects of any Foreign State.

[The twelfth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the eighth Congress on December 12, 1803, and was declared in force September 25, 1804.]

ARTICLE XII

*Present mode of electing President and Vice-President by electors — The Electors shall meet in their respective states and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate; — The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted; — The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President. The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President, shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of Senators and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.

[The thirteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-eighth Congress on February 1, 1865, and was declared in force December 18, 1865.]

ARTICLE XIII

SECTION 1

Slavery prohibited — Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

SECTION 2

Congress given power to enforce this article — Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The fourteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-ninth Congress on June 16, 1866, and was declared in force July 28, 1868.]

ARTICLE XIV

SECTION 1

Citizenship defined; privileges of citizens — All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SECTION 2

Apportionment of Representatives — Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the Executive and Judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SECTION 3

Disqualification for office; removal of disability — No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SECTION 4

Public debt not to be questioned; payment of debts and claims incurred in aid of rebellion forbidden — The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

SECTION 5

Congress given power to enforce this article — The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

[The fifteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the fortieth Congress on February 27, 1869, and was declared in force March 30, 1870.]

ARTICLE XV

SECTION 1

Right of certain citizens to vote established — The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2

Congress given power to enforce this article — The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The sixteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-first Congress on July 12, 1909, and was declared in force February 25, 1913.]

ARTICLE XVI

Taxes on incomes; Congress given power to lay and collect — The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

[The seventeenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-second Congress on May 16, 1912, and was declared in force May 31, 1913.]

ARTICLE XVII

Election of United States Senators; filling of vacancies; qualification of electors — 1. The Senate of the United States will be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislatures.

2. When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, that the legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointment until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

3. This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any Senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.

[The eighteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-fifth Congress, and was declared on January 29, 1919, as going into full force and effect on January 16, 1920.]

•ARTICLE XVIII

Manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors, for beverage purposes, prohibited — 1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Congress and the several States given concurrent power to pass appropriate legislation to enforce this article — 2. The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Provisions of article to become operative, when adopted by three-fourths of the State — 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of the several States, as provided in the Constitution within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

[The nineteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-sixth Congress on May 19, 1919, and declared in force August 26, 1920.]

ARTICLE XIX

The right of citizens to vote shall not be denied because of sex — The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The twentieth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the states by the seventy-second Congress, Senate Joint Res. 14, passed by the House of Representatives on March 1, 1932; the Senate March 2, 1932; signed by the Speaker of the House March 2, 1932, by the Vice-President of the U. S. and the President of the Senate March 3, 1932. Ratification by the thirty-sixth state occurred January 23, 1933. Sections 1 and 2 of the amendment became effective October 15, 1933.]

*Repealed by Article XXI, effective December 5, 1933.

ARTICLE XX

SECTION 1

Terms of President, Vice-President, Senators and Representatives — The terms of the President and Vice-President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3d day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

SECTION 2

Time of assembling Congress — The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 3

Filling vacancy in office of President — If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice-President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice-President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice-President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice-President shall have qualified.

SECTION 4

Power of Congress in Presidential succession — The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice-President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

SECTION 5

Time of taking effect — Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

SECTION 6

Ratification — This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

[The twenty-first amendment, which follows, was proposed by the seventy-second Congress, second session beginning December 5, 1932. Senate Joint Resolution 211, passed February 20, 1933, provided for ratification by conventions in three-fourths of the States. The amendment became effective with ratification by Utah, the thirty-sixth state, on December 5, 1933.]

ARTICLE XXI

SECTION 1

Repeal of Prohibition Amendment — The eighteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2

Transportation of intoxicating Liquors — The transportation or importation into any State, Territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

SECTION 3

Ratification — This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

[The twenty-second amendment, which follows, was proposed by the eightieth Congress, first session beginning January 3, 1947. Joint Resolution provided for ratification by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states. The amendment became effective with ratification by Minnesota, the thirty-sixth state, on February 27, 1951.]

ARTICLE XXII

SECTION 1

Term of the office of President — No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

SECTION 2

Ratification — This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress.

[The twenty-third amendment which follows, was proposed by the eighty-sixth Congress, second session beginning January 6, 1960. Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States granting representation in the electoral college to the District of Columbia, and provided for ratification by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress. The amendment became effective with ratification by Kansas, on April 3, 1961.]

ARTICLE XXIII

SECTION 1

Granting representation in the electoral college to the District of Columbia — The District constituting the seat of Government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

A number of electors of President and Vice President equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the District would be entitled if it were a State, but in no event more than the least populous State; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the States, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and Vice President, to be electors appointed by a State; and they shall meet in the District and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

SECTION 2

Congress given power to enforce this Article — The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The twenty-fourth amendment which follows, was proposed by the eighty-seventh Congress, second session beginning January 10, 1962. Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the qualifications of electors, and provided for ratification by the legislature of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress. The amendment became effective with ratification by South Dakota, on January 23, 1964.]

ARTICLE XXIV

SECTION 1

Relating to the qualifications of electors — The rights of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice President, for electors for President or Vice President, or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

SECTION 2

Congress given power to enforce this Article — The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The twenty-fifth amendment which follows was proposed at the first session of the eighty-ninth Congress beginning January 4, 1965. Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to succession to the Presidency and Vice Presidency and to cases where the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and provided for ratification by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress. The amendment became effective with ratification by Nevada on February 10, 1967.]

ARTICLE XXV

SECTION 1

Vice President to become President — In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

SECTION 2

President to nominate Vice President when vacancy in office of Vice President — Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

SECTION 3

President unable to discharge duties Vice President to be Acting President — Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

SECTION 4

President unable to discharge duties determined by Vice President

or as Congress may by law provide — Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either of the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President.

Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.

[The twenty-sixth amendment which follows was proposed at the first session of the ninety-second Congress beginning January 21, 1971. Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States extending the right to vote to citizens eighteen years of age or older, and provided for ratification by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress. The amendment was declared on July 5, 1971 as going into full force and effect on July 1, 1971.]

ARTICLE XXVI

SECTION 1

Extending the right to vote to citizens eighteen years of age or older — The right of citizens of the United States, who are eighteen years of age or older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of age.

SECTION 2

Congress given power to enforce this article — The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

PART FIRST

BILL OF RIGHTS

Article 1st. [Equality of Men; Origin and Object of Government.] All men are born equally free and independent: Therefore, all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 65 NH 113, 86 NH 597, 89 NH 428, 96 NH 423, 102 NH 215, 105 NH 366.

[Art.] 2d. [Natural Rights.] All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights — among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by this state on account of race, creed, color, sex or national origin.

NOTE. — The abbreviation "Art" was first inserted in this and following articles of the Bill of Rights in General Statutes. 1867. Amended 1974.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 53 NH 398, 54 NH 117, 54 NH 590, 60 NH 219, 67 NH 1, 71 NH 552, 72 NH 95, 73 NH 31, 75 NH 27, 77 NH 581, 87 NH 64, 87 NH 68, 94 NH 148, 102 NH 236.

[Art.] 3d. [Society, its Organization and Purposes.] When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 60 NH 219, 71 NH 552, 89 NH 54, 97 NH 91, 105 NH 355.

[Art.] 4th. [Rights of Conscience Unalienable.] Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 59 NH 219, 89 NH 54, 100 NH 436.

[Art.] 5th. [Religious Freedom Recognized.] Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion; provided he doth not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 58 NH 240, 59 NH 219, 64 NH 48, 68 NH 380, 76 NH 393, 89 NH 54, 91 NH 137, 97 NH 352, 99 NH 519, 100 NH 436.

[Art.] 6th. [Morality and Piety.] As morality and piety, rightly grounded on high principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is most likely to be propagated through a society, therefore, the several parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies shall at all times have the right of electing their own teachers, and of contracting with them for their support or maintenance, or both. But no person shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the schools of any sect or denomination. And every person, denomination or sect shall be equally under the protection of the law; and no subordination of any one sect, denomination or persuasion to another shall ever be established.

NOTE. — This article amended 1968.

[Art.] 7th. [State Sovereignty.] The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

Annotation — 66 NH 362, 90 NH 472, 105 NH 286.

[Art.] 8th. [Accountability of Magistrates and Officers; Public's Right to Know.] All power residing originally in, and being derived from, the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them. Government, therefore, should be open, accessible, accountable and responsive. To that end, the public's right of access to governmental proceedings and records shall not be unreasonably restricted.

NOTE. — Amended 1974, eff. November 24, 1976.

Annotation — 66 NH 362, 67 NH 1, 90 NH 472.

[Art.] 9th. [No Hereditary Office or Place.] No office or place, whatsoever, in government, shall be hereditary — the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.

[Art.] 10th. [Right of Revolution.] Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power, and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

[Art.] 11th. [Elections and Elective Franchises.] All elections are to be free, and every inhabitant of the state of eighteen years of age and upward shall have an equal right to vote in any election. Every person shall be considered an inhabitant for the purpose of voting in the town, ward, or unincorporated place where he has his domicile. No person shall have the right to vote under the constitution of this state who has been convicted of treason, bribery or any willful violation of the election laws of this state or of the United States; but the supreme court may, on notice to the attorney general, restore the privilege to vote to any person who may have forfeited it by conviction of such offense. The general court shall provide by law for voting by qualified voters who at the time of biennial or state elections, or of the primary elections therefor, or of city elections, or of town elections by official ballot, are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants, or who by reason of physical disability are unable to vote in person, in the choice of any office or officers to be elected or upon any question submitted at such election. The right to vote shall not be denied to any person because of the non-payment of any tax. Every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to be elected into office.

[Art.] 12th. [Protection and Taxation Reciprocal.] Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this state controllable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.

[Art.] 14th. [Legal Remedies to be Free, Complete, and Prompt.] Every subject of this state is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

[Art.] 15th. [Right of Accused.] No subject shall be held to answer for any crime, or offense, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defense, by himself, and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land. Every person held to answer in any crime or offense punishable by deprivation of liberty shall have the right to counsel at the expense of the state if need is shown; this right he is at liberty to waive, but only after the matter has been thoroughly explained by the court.

[Art.] 16th. [Former Jeopardy; Jury Trial in Capital Cases.] No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offense. Nor shall the legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service) without trial by jury.

[Art.] 17th. [Venue of Criminal Prosecutions.] In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happened, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate, of the citizen, that no crime or offense ought to be tried in any other county than that in which it is committed; — except in cases of general insurrection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the judges of the superior court, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the offense may be committed, and upon their report, the legislature shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

[Art.] 18th. [Penalties to be Proportioned to Offenses; True Design of Punishment.] All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. Where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do the lightest offenses. For the same reason a multitude of sanguinary laws is both impolitic and unjust. The true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate mankind.

NOTE. — The words “those of” following the word “do” in the third sentence, stricken out, 1793.

The word “offenses” in the third sentence was substituted for “dye,” 1793.

Annotation — 80 NH 1.

[Art.] 19th. [Searches and Seizures Regulated.] Every subject hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued; but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.

[Art.] 24th. [Militia.] A well regulated militia is the proper, natural, and sure defense, of a state.

[Art.] 25th. [Standing Armies.] Standing armies are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be raised, or kept up, without the consent of the legislature.

[Art.] 26th. [Military Subject to Civil Power.] In all cases, and at all times, the military ought to be under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power.

Annotation — 102 NH 75.

[Art.] 27th. [Quartering of Soldiers.] No soldiers in time of peace, shall be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature.

[Art.] 28th. [Taxes, by Whom Levied.] No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body.

[Art.] 29th. [Suspension of Laws by Legislature Only.] The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of them, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived therefrom, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for.

[Art.] 30th. [Freedom of Speech.] The freedom of deliberation, speech, and debate, in either house of the legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any action, complaint, or prosecution, in any other court or place whatsoever.

Annotation — 91 NH 137, 91 NH 310, 97 NH 91, 97 NH 352, 99 NH 33.

[Art.] 31st. [Meetings of Legislature, for What Purposes.] The legislature shall assemble for the redress of public grievances and for making such laws as the public good may require.

NOTE. — Substituted for original Article 31, 1793.

Annotation — 91 NH 137.

[Art.] 32d. [Rights of Assembly, Instruction, and Petition.] The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble and consult upon the common good, give instructions to their representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by way of petition or remonstrance, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

Annotation — 71 NH 468, 97 NH 352, 105 NH 38.

[Art.] 33rd. [Excessive Bail, Fines, and Punishments Prohibited.] No magistrate, or court of law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

Annotation — 1 NH 374, 25 NH 537, 99 NH 33, 100 NH 436.

[Art.] 34th. [Martial Law Limited.] No person can, in any case, be subjected to law martial, or to any pains or penalties by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the legislature.

[Art.] 35th. [The Judiciary; Tenure of Office, etc.] It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as impartial as the lot of humanity will admit. It is therefore not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices so long as they behave well; subject, however, to such limitations, on account of age, as may be provided by the constitution of the state; and that they should have honorable salaries, ascertained and established by standing laws.

[Art.] 37th. [Separation of Powers.] In the government of this state, the three essential powers thereof, to wit, the legislative, executive, and judicial, ought to be kept as separate from, and independent of, each other, as the nature of a free government will admit, or as is consistent with that chain of connection that binds the whole fabric of the constitution in one indissoluble bond of union and amity.

[Art.] 38th. [Social Virtues Inculcated.] A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, industry, frugality, and all the social virtues, are indispensably necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty and good government; the people ought, therefore, to have a particular regard to all those principles in the choice of their officers and representatives, and they have a right to require of their lawgivers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government.

Annotation — 58 NH 623, 60 NH 219, 67 NH 1, 90 NH 472.

[Art.] 39th. [Changes in Town and City Charters, Referendum Required.] No law changing the charter or form of government of a particular city or town shall be enacted by the legislature except to become effective upon the approval of the voters of such city or town upon a referendum to be provided for in said law.

The legislature may by general law authorize cities and towns to adopt or amend their charters or forms of government in any way which is not in conflict with general law, provided that such charters or amendments shall become effective only upon the approval of the voters of each such city or town on a referendum.

PART SECOND

FORM OF GOVERNMENT

Article 1st. [Name of Body Politic.] The people inhabiting the territory formerly called the province of New Hampshire, do hereby solemnly and mutually agree with each other, to form themselves into a free, sovereign and independent body-politic, or state, by the name of THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

NOTE. — The numbers of these articles were first inserted in Revised Statutes, 1842; "Art.," in General Statutes, 1867.

Annotation — 88 NH 394, 90 NH 472, 95 NH 217.

GENERAL COURT

[Art.] 2d. [Legislature, How Constituted.] The supreme legislative power, within this state, shall be vested in the senate and house of representatives, each of which shall have a negative on the other.

[Art.] 3d. [General Court, When to Meet and Dissolve.] The senate and house shall assemble biennially on the first Wednesday of December for organizational purposes and, following their organization, they shall assemble on the first Wednesday following the first Tuesday of January and at such other times as they may judge necessary; and shall dissolve and be dissolved at 12:01 A.M. on the first Wednesday of December biennially and shall be styled THE GENERAL COURT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

NOTE. — "Biennially" substituted for "every year," 1877; and "January" substituted for "June," 1889.

Annotation — 88 NH 495, 93 NH 474, 96 NH 517, 101 NH 536, 107 NH 495.
Amended in 1966, 1970, 1974, eff. after biennial election 1976.

[Art.] 4th. [Power of General Court to Establish Courts.] The general court (except as otherwise provided by Article 72-a of Part 2) shall forever have full power and authority to erect and constitute judicatories and courts of record, or other courts, to be holden, in the name of the state, for the hearing, trying, and determining, all manner of crimes, offenses, pleas, processes, complaints, actions, causes, matters and things whatsoever arising or happening within this state, or between or concerning persons inhabiting or residing, or brought, within the same, whether the same be criminal or civil, or whether the crimes be capital, or not capital, and whether the said pleas be real, personal or mixed, and for the awarding and issuing execution thereon. To which courts and judicatories, are hereby given and granted, full power and authority, from time to time, to administer oaths or affirmations, for the better discovery of truth in any matter in controversy, or depending before them.

[Art.] 5th. [Power to Make Laws, Elect Officers, Define Their Powers and Duties, Impose Fines and Assess Taxes; Prohibited from Authorizing Towns to Aid Certain Corporations.] And further, full power and authority are hereby given and granted to the said general court, from time to time, to make, ordain, and establish, all manner of wholesome and reasonable orders, laws, statutes, ordinances, directions, and instructions, either with penalties, or without, so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution, as they may judge for the benefit and welfare of this state, and for the governing and ordering thereof, and of the subjects of the same, for the necessary support and defense of the government thereof, and to name and settle biennially, or provide by fixed laws for the naming and settling, all civil officers within this state, such officers excepted, the election and appointment of whom are hereafter in this form of government otherwise provided for; and to set forth the several duties, powers, and limits, of the several civil and military officers of this state, and the forms of such oaths or affirmations as shall be respectively administered unto them, for the execution of their several offices and places, so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution; and also to impose fines, mulcts, imprisonments, and other punishments; and to impose and levy proportional and reasonable assessments, rates, and taxes, upon all the inhabitants of, and residents within, the said state; and upon all estates within the same; to be issued and disposed of by warrant, under the hand of the governor of this state for the time being, with the advice and consent of the council, for the public service, in the necessary defense and support of the government of this state, and the protection and preservation of the subjects thereof, according to such acts as are, or shall be, in force within the same; provided that the general court shall not authorize any town to loan or give its money or credit directly or indirectly for the benefit of any corporation having for its object a dividend of profits or in any way aid the same by taking its stock or bonds. For the purpose of encouraging conservation of the forest resources of the state, the general court may provide for special assessments, rates and taxes on growing wood and timber.

NOTE. — “Biennially” substituted for “annually,” 1877; “governor” substituted for “president,” 1793.

The proviso against aid to profit-seeking corporations was inserted, 1877; and the authorization of special taxes on growing wood and timber was inserted, 1942.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NOTE. — Provisions under this head followed those under head "Senate" prior to 1793.

[Art.] 9th. [Representatives Elected Every Second Year; Apportionment of Representatives.] There shall be in the legislature of this state a house of representatives, biennially elected and founded on principles of equality, and representation therein shall be as equal as circumstances will admit. The whole number of representatives to be chosen from the towns, wards, places, and representative districts thereof established hereunder, shall be not less than three hundred seventy-five or more than four hundred. As soon as possible after the convening of the next regular session of the legislature, and at the session in 1971, and every ten years thereafter, the legislature shall make an apportionment of representatives according to the last general census of the inhabitants of the state taken by authority of the United States or of this state. In making such apportionment, no town, ward or place shall be divided nor the boundaries thereof altered.

NOTE. — Original article amended 1877 and new article inserted 1942 and amended 1964.

Annotation — 76 NH 586, 80 NH 447, 101 NH 523, 104 NH 100, 104 NH 106, 105 NH 125, 106 NH 233.

[Art.] 9-a. [Legislative Adjustments of Census with Reference to Non-Residents.] The general court shall have the power to provide by statute for making suitable adjustments to the general census of the inhabitants of the state taken by the authority of the United States or of this state on account of non-residents temporarily residing in this state.

NOTE. — This article inserted 1960.

[Art.] 10th. [Representation of Small Towns.]

NOTE. — Stricken out, 1889. Subject covered by next article.

[Art.] 11th. [Small Towns; Representation by Districts.] When any town, ward, or unincorporated place, according to the last federal decennial census, has less than the number of inhabitants necessary to entitle it to one representative, the legislature shall form those towns, wards, or unincorporated places into representative districts which contain a sufficient number of inhabitants to entitle each district so formed to one or more representatives for the entire district. In forming the districts, the boundaries of towns, wards and unincorporated places shall be preserved and the towns, wards and unincorporated places forming one district shall be reasonably proximate to one another. The legislature shall form the representative districts at its next session after approval of this article by the voters of the state, and thereafter at the regular session following every decennial federal census.

NOTE. — Original number of article restored.

Original article amended 1877 and 1889. New article inserted 1942, amended 1964.

Annotation — 101 NH 523.

[Art.] 13th. [Qualifications of Electors.]

NOTE. — Stricken out, 1974.

NOTE. — The phrase “town, district, parish or place” was shortened to “district” in the engrossed copy of 1793, apparently without authority.

Annotation — 73 NH 618, 76 NH 586.

[Art.] 14th. [Representatives, How Elected, Qualifications of.] Every member of the house of representatives shall be chosen by ballot; and, for two years, at least, next preceding his election shall have been an inhabitant of this state; shall be, at the time of his election, an inhabitant of the town, ward, place, or district he may be chosen to represent and shall cease to represent such town, ward, place, or district immediately on his ceasing to be qualified as aforesaid.

NOTE. — The former requirement that each member “shall have an estate within the town, parish or place which he may be chosen to represent of the value of one hundred pounds, one half of which to be a freehold whereof he is seized in his own right”, was stricken out, 1852; and a requirement that each member shall be of the Protestant religion” was stricken out, 1877.

NOTE. — Amended in 1958 and 1964.

Annotation — 71 NH 480, 73 NH 618, 76 NH 586.

[Art.] 15th. [Compensation of the Legislature.] The presiding officers of both houses of the legislature, shall severally receive out of the state treasury as compensation in full for their services for the term elected the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and all other members thereof, seasonably attending and not departing without license, the sum of two hundred dollars and each member shall receive mileage for actual daily attendance on legislative days, but not after the legislature shall have been in session for ninety legislative days or after the first day of July following the biennial assembly of the Legislature, whichever occurs first; provided however, that when a special session shall be called by the governor or by a two-thirds vote of the then qualified members of each branch of the general court, such officers and members shall receive for attendance an additional compensation of three dollars per day for a period not exceeding fifteen days and the usual mileage.

Nothing herein shall prevent the payment of additional mileage to members attending committee meetings or on other legislative business on non-legislative days.

NOTE. — Section 1 of Amendment 26 of 1793, [which was substituted for original Article 6 under "House of Representatives"] stricken out and above inserted, 1889.

NOTE. — This article amended 1960.

[Art.] 34. [Vacancies in Senate, How filled.] And in case there shall not appear to be a senator elected, by a plurality of votes, for any district, the deficiency shall be supplied in the following manner, viz. The members of the house of representatives, and such senators as shall be declared elected, shall take the names of the two persons having the highest number of votes in the district, and out of them shall elect, by joint ballot, the senator wanted for such district; and in this manner all such vacancies shall be filled up, in every district of the state and in case the person receiving a plurality of votes in any district is found by the Senate not to be qualified to be seated, a new election shall be held forthwith in said district. All vacancies in the senate arising by death, removal out of the state, or otherwise, except from failure to elect, shall be filled by a new election by the people of the district upon the requisition of the governor and council, as soon as may be after such vacancies shall happen.

NOTE. — "Plurality" substituted for "majority," 1912. Amended 1968.

The last sentence formerly read: "And, in like manner, all vacancies in the senate, arising by death, removal out of the state, or otherwise, shall be supplied as soon as may be after such vacancies happen," 1889.

Annotation — 68 NH 54, 71 NH 480.

[Art.] 35. [Senate, Judges of Their Own Elections.] The senate shall be final judges of the elections, returns, and qualifications, of their own members, as pointed out in this constitution.

Annotation — 56 NH 570, 56 NH 574, 68 NH 54, 94 NH 236, 106 NH 121.

[Art.] 36. [Adjournment.] The senate shall have power to adjourn themselves, and whenever they shall sit on the trial of any impeachment, they may adjourn to such time and place as they may think proper although the legislature be not assembled on such day, or at such place.

NOTE. — "Five" substituted for "two," 1948. Amended 1966.

Annotation — 76 NH 601.

[Art.] 37. [Senate to Elect Their Own Officers; Quorum.] The senate shall appoint their president and other officers, and determine their own rules of proceedings: And not less than thirteen members of the senate shall make a quorum for doing business; and when less than sixteen senators shall be present, the assent of ten, at least, shall be necessary to render their acts and proceedings valid.

NOTE. — "Thirteen" substituted for "seven," 1877; "sixteen" substituted for "eight," 1877; and "ten" substituted for "five," 1877.

[Art.] 38. [Senate to Try Impeachments; Mode of Proceeding.] The senate shall be a court, with full power and authority to hear, try, and determine, all impeachments made by the house of representatives against any officer or officers of the state, for bribery, corruption, malpractice or maladministration, in office; with full power to issue summons, or compulsory process, for convening witnesses before them: But previous to the trial of any such impeachment, the members of the senate shall respectively be sworn truly and impartially to try and determine the charge in question, according to evidence. And every officer, impeached for bribery, corruption, malpractice or maladministration in office, shall be served with an attested copy of the impeachment, and order of the senate thereon with such citation as the senate may direct, setting forth the time and place of their sitting to try the impeachment; which service shall be made by the sheriff, or such other sworn officer as the senate may appoint, at least fourteen days previous to the time of trial; and such citation being duly served and returned, the senate may proceed in the hearing of the impeachment, giving the person impeached, if he shall appear, full liberty of producing witnesses and proofs, and of making his defense, by himself and counsel, and may also, upon his refusing or neglecting to appear hear the proofs in support of the impeachment, and render judgment thereon, his nonappearance notwithstanding; and such judgment shall have the same force and effect as if the person impeached had appeared and pleaded in the trial.

[Art.] 39. [Judgment on Impeachment Limited.] Their judgment, however, shall not extend further than removal from office, disqualification to hold or enjoy any place of honor, trust, or profit, under this state; but the party so convicted, shall nevertheless be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment, according to the laws of the land.

[Art.] 40. [Chief Justice to Preside on Impeachment of Governor.] Whenever the governor shall be impeached, the chief justice of the supreme judicial court, shall, during the trial, preside in the senate, but have no vote therein.

GOVERNOR

NOTE. — Entire provisions relating to "president" stricken out and these provisions substituted, 1793.

[Art.] 41. [Governor; Supreme Executive Magistrate.] There shall be a supreme executive magistrate, who shall be styled the Governor of the State of New Hampshire, and whose title shall be His Excellency. The executive power of the state is vested in the governor. The governor shall be responsible for the faithful execution of the laws. He may, by appropriate court action or proceeding brought in the name of the state, enforce compliance with any constitutional or legislative mandate, or restrain violation of any constitutional or legislative power, duty, or right, by any officer, department or agency of the state. This authority shall not be construed to authorize any action or proceedings against the legislative or judicial branches.

NOTE. — This article amended 1966.

Annotation — 66 NH 629, 74 NH 606, 105 NH 38, 106 NH 279.

[Art.] 42. [Election of Governor; Return of Votes; Electors; If No Choice, Legislature to Elect One of Two Highest Candidates; Qualifications for Governor.] The governor shall be chosen biennially in the month of November; and the votes for governor shall be received, sorted, counted, certified and returned, in the same manner as the votes for senators; and the secretary shall lay the same before the senate and house of representatives, on the first Wednesday of January to be by them examined, and in case of an election by a plurality of votes through the state, the choice shall be by them declared and published. And the qualifications of electors of the governor shall be the same as those for senators; and if no person shall have a plurality of votes, the senate and house of representatives shall, by joint ballot elect one of the two persons, having the highest number of votes, who shall be declared governor. And no person shall be eligible to this office, unless at the time of his election, he shall have been an inhabitant of this state for seven years next preceding, and unless he shall be of the age of thirty years.

NOTE. — "Biennially" substituted for "annually," 1877; "November" substituted for "March," 1877; "January" substituted for "June," 1889; and "plurality" substituted for "majority," 1912.

A former requirement that the governor "shall at the same time have an estate of the value of five hundred pounds, one half of which shall consist of a freehold in his own right, within this state" was stricken out, 1852; and the requirement he shall be of the Protestant religion was stricken out, 1877.

Annotation — 66 NH 382, 71 NH 480, 76 NH 99.

[Art.] 43. [In cases of Disagreement Governor to Adjourn or Prorogue Legislation; If Infectious Distemper or Other Cause Exists, May Convene Them Elsewhere.] In cases of disagreement between the two houses, with regard to the time or place of adjournment or prorogation, the governor, with advice of council, shall have a right to adjourn or prorogue the general court, not exceeding ninety days at any one time, as he may determine the public good may require, and he shall dissolve the same on the first Wednesday of December biennially. And, in case of any infectious distemper prevailing in the place where the said court at any time is to convene, or any other cause, whereby dangers may arise to the health or lives of the members from their attendance, the governor may direct the session to be holden at some other the most convenient place within the state.

NOTE. — "January" substituted for "June," 1889. Amended 1974, eff. after biennial election 1976.

Annotation — 76 NH 601.

[Art.] 44. [Veto to Bills.] Every bill which shall have passed both houses of the general court, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the governor, if he approve, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it; if after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with such objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and, if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of persons, voting for or against the bill, shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the governor within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it unless the legislature, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

[Art.] 45. [Resolves to Be Treated Like Bills.] Every resolve shall be presented to the governor, and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

Annotation — 96 NH 517.

[Art.] 46. [Nomination and Appointment of Officers.] All judicial officers, the attorney-general, and all officers of the navy, and general and field officers of the militia, shall be nominated and appointed by the governor and council; and every such nomination shall be made at least three days prior to such appointment; and no appointment shall take place, unless a majority of the council agree thereto.

NOTE. — A former inclusion of "Solicitors, all sheriffs," and of "registers of probate," was stricken out, 1877.

NOTE. — Amended 1974, eff. November 24, 1976.

Annotation — 57 NH 146, 74 NH 606, 98 NH 530, 102 NH 195.

[Art.] 47. [Governor and Council Have Negative on Each Other.] The governor and council shall have a negative on each other, both in the nominations and appointments. Every nomination and appointment shall be signed by the governor and council, and every negative shall be also signed by the governor or council who made the same.

Annotation — 79 NH 535.

[Art.] 48. [Field Officers to Recommend, and Governor to Appoint, Company Officers.]

NOTE. — Stricken out 1974, eff. November 24, 1976.

[Art.] 49. [President of Senate, etc., To Act as Governor When Office Vacant; Speaker of House to Act When Office of President of Senate also Vacant.] Whenever the chair of the governor shall become vacant, by reason of his death, absence from the state, or otherwise, the president of the senate shall during such vacancy, have and exercise all the powers and authorities which by this constitution the governor is vested with, when personally present; but when the president of the senate shall exercise the office of governor, he shall not hold his office in the senate. Whenever the chair both of the governor and of the president of the senate shall become vacant by reason of their death, absence from the state, or otherwise, the speaker of the house shall, during such vacancies, have and exercise all the powers and authorities which, by this constitution the governor is vested with when personally present. But when the speaker of the house shall exercise the office of governor, he shall not hold his office in the house. Whenever the chair of the governor, of the president of the senate, and of the speaker of the house all become vacant by reason of their death, absence from state, or otherwise, the secretary of state shall during such vacancies, have and exercise all the powers and authorities which, by this constitution the governor is vested with when personally present. But when the secretary of state exercises the office of governor, he shall not hold his office as secretary of state. Whenever the chair of the governor, of the president of the senate, of the speaker of the house and the secretary of state all become vacant by reason of their death, absence from the state, or otherwise, the state treasurer shall during such vacancies, have and exercise all the powers and authorities which, by this constitution the governor is vested with when personally present. But when the state treasurer exercises the office of governor, he shall not hold his office as state treasurer. Whenever either the secretary of state or the state treasurer exercises the office of governor, he shall be only an acting governor until such time as the senate elects a president or the house of representatives elects a speaker, and upon their election, the president of the senate or the speaker of the house of representatives shall exercise the office of governor as hereinabove provided. Provided nevertheless, that while the governor is absent from the state on official business, he shall have the power and authority to transact such business.

NOTE. — Sentences two and three inserted, 1889. Amended in 1956, 1968.

Annotation — 66 NH 362, 87 NH 489, 101 NH 541.

[Art.] 50. [Governor to Prorogue or Adjourn Legislature, and Call Extra Sessions.] The governor, with advice of council, shall have full power and authority, in the recess of the general court, to prorogue the same from time to time, not exceeding ninety days, in any one recess of said court; and during the sessions of said court, to adjourn or prorogue it to any time the two houses may desire, and to call it together sooner than the time to which it may be adjourned, or prorogued, if the welfare of the state should require the same.

Annotation — 73 NH 625, 76 NH 601, 93 NH 474, 96 NH 517, 101 NH 536, 101 NH 549, 103 NH 402.

[Art.] 51. [Powers and Duties of Governor as Commander-in-Chief.] The governor of this state for the time being, shall be commander-in-chief of all the military forces of the state; and shall have full power, by himself or by any chief commander, or other officer or officers, from time to time, to train, instruct, exercise and govern the militia; to call forth the militia and to put in warlike posture the inhabitants of the state; to execute the laws of the state and of the United States; to suppress insurrection and to repel invasion; and, in fine, the governor is hereby entrusted with all other powers incident to the office of commander-in-chief to be exercised agreeably to the rules and regulations of the constitution and the laws of the land.

Amended 1968.

[Art.] 52. [Pardoning Power.] The power of pardoning offenses, except such as persons may be convicted of before the senate, by impeachment of the house, shall be in the governor, by and with the advice of council: But no charter of pardon, granted by the governor, with advice of council, before conviction, shall avail the party pleading the same, notwithstanding any general or particular expressions contained therein, descriptive of the offense or offenses intended to be pardoned.

[Art.] 57. [Accounts of Military Stores.]

NOTE. — Stricken out, 1950.

[Art.] 58. [Compensation of Governor and Council.] The governor and council shall be compensated for their services, from time to time by such grants as the general courts shall think reasonable.

[Art.] 59. [Salaries of Judges.] Permanent and honorable salaries shall be established by law, for the justices of the superior court.

COUNCIL

NOTE. — Entire provisions as to council stricken out and these provisions substituted, 1793.

[Art.] 60. [Councilors; Mode of Election, etc.] There shall be biennially elected, by ballot, five councilors, for advising the governor in the executive part of government. The frecholders and other inhabitants in each county, qualified to vote for senators, shall some time in the month of November, give in their votes for one councilor; which votes shall be received, sorted, counted, certified, and returned to the secretary's office, in the same manner as the votes for senators, to be by the secretary laid before the senate and house of representatives on the first Wednesday of January.

NOTE. — "Biennially" substituted for "annually," 1877; "November" substituted for "March," 1877; and "January" substituted for "June," 1889.

Annotation — 71 NH 480, 74 NH 606, 76 NH 99, 76 NH 586, 96 NH 513, 98 NH 530.

[Art.] 61. [Vacancies, How Filled, if No Choice.] And the person having a plurality of votes in any county, shall be considered as duly elected a councilor: But if no person shall have a plurality of votes in any county, the senate and house of representatives shall take the names of the two persons who have the highest number of votes in each county, and not elected, and out of those two shall elect by joint ballot, the councilor wanted for such county, and the qualifications for councilors shall be the same as for senator.

NOTE. — "Plurality" substituted for "majority," 1912.

Annotation — 71 NH 480.

[Art.] 62. [Subsequent Vacancies; Governor to Convene; Duties.] If any person thus chosen a councilor, shall be elected governor or member of either branch of the legislature, and shall accept the trust; or if any person elected a councilor, shall refuse to accept the office, or in case of the death, resignation, or removal of any councilor out of the state, the governor may issue a precept for the election of a new councilor in that county where such vacancy shall happen and the choice shall be in the same manner as before directed. And the governor shall have full power and authority to convene the council, from time to time, at his discretion; and, with them, or the majority of them, may and shall, from time to time hold a council, for ordering and directing the affairs of the state, according to the laws of the land.

Annotation — 72 NH 601, 74 NH 606, 96 NH 513, 98 NH 589, 102 NH 183.

[Art.] 63. [Impeachment of Councilors.] The members of the council may be impeached by the house, and tried by the senate for bribery, corruption, malpractice, or maladministration.

Annotation — 98 NH 530.

[Art.] 64. [Secretary to Record Proceedings of Council.] The resolutions and advice of the council shall be recorded by the secretary, in a register, and signed by all members present agreeing thereto; and this record may be called for at any time, by either house of the legislature; and any member of the council may enter his opinion contrary to the resolutions of the majority, with the reasons for such opinion.

Annotation — 79 NH 535, 98 NH 530.

[Art.] 65. [Councilor Districts Provided for.] The legislature may, if the public good shall hereafter require it, divide the state into five districts, as nearly equal as may be, governing themselves by the number of population, each district to elect a councilor: And, in case of such division, the manner of the choice shall be conformable to the present mode of election in counties.

NOTE. — “Population” substituted for “ratable polls and proportion of public taxes,” 1912.

[Art.] 66. [Elections by Legislature May Be Adjourned From Day to Day; Order Thereof.] And, whereas the elections, appointed to be made by this constitution, on the first Wednesday of January biennially, by the two houses of the legislature, may not be completed on that day, the said elections may be adjourned from day to day, until the same be completed: and the order of the elections shall be as follows — the vacancies in the senate, if any, shall be first filled up: The governor shall then be elected, provided there shall be no choice of him by the people: And afterwards, the two houses shall proceed to fill up the vacancy, if any, in the council.

NOTE. — “January” substituted for “June,” 1889; and “biennially” substituted for “annually,” 1877.

SECRETARY, TREASURER, ETC.

[Art.] 67. [Election of Secretary and Treasurer.] The secretary and treasurer shall be chosen by joint ballot of the senators and representatives assembled in one room.

NOTE. — “And commissary-general” stricken out, 1950.

Annotation — 102 NH 195, 106 NH 402.

[Art.] 68. [State Records, Where Kept; Duty of Secretary.] The records of the state shall be kept in the office of the secretary, and he shall attend the governor and council, the senate and representatives, in person, or by deputy, as they may require.

NOTE. — The words, "who may appoint his deputies, for whose conduct he shall be answerable," following the words "secretary of state," stricken out, 1793.

"Governor" substituted for "president," 1793.

Annotation — 35 NH 579.

[Art.] 69. [Deputy Secretary.] The secretary of the state shall, at all times, have a deputy, to be by him appointed; for whose conduct in office he shall be responsible: And, in case of the death, removal, or inability of the secretary, his deputy shall exercise all the duties of the office of secretary of this state, until another shall be appointed.

NOTE. — This article inserted, 1793.

Annotation — 72 NH 605.

[Art.] 70. [Secretary to Give Bond.] The secretary, before he enters upon the business of his office, shall give bond, with sufficient sureties, in a reasonable sum, for the use of the state, for the punctual performance of his trust.

NOTE. — This article inserted, 1793.

COUNTY TREASURER, ETC.

[Art.] 71. [County Treasurers, Registers of Probate, County Attorneys, Sheriffs, and Registers of Deeds Elected.] The county treasurers, registers of probate, county attorneys, sheriffs and registers of deeds, shall be elected by the inhabitants of the several towns, in the several counties in the state, according to the method now practiced, and the laws of the state, Provided nevertheless the legislature shall have authority to alter the manner of certifying the votes, and the mode of electing those officers; but not so as to deprive the people of the right they now have of electing them.

NOTE. — This article was substituted for the original article 1793 and amended 1958. The words "registers of probate; sheriffs" inserted in 1877.

Annotation — 7 NH 599, 71 NH 138, 73 NH 618, 76 NH 99, 99 NH 540, 101 NH 487.

[Art.] 72. [Counties May Be Divided into Districts for Registering Deeds.] And the legislature, on the application of the major part of the inhabitants of any county, shall have authority to divide the same into two districts for registering deeds, if to them it shall appear necessary; each district to elect a register of deeds: And before they enter upon the business of their offices, shall be respectively sworn faithfully to discharge the duties thereof, and shall severally give bond, with sufficient sureties, in a reasonable sum, for the use of the county for the punctual performance of their respective trusts.

NOTE. — This article inserted, 1793.

JUDICIARY POWER

[Art.] 72-a. [Supreme and Superior Courts.] The judicial power of the state shall be vested in the supreme court, a trial court of general jurisdiction known as the superior court, and such lower courts as the legislature may establish under Article 4th of Part 2.

NOTE. — This article inserted 1966.

[Art.] 73. [Tenure of Office To Be Expressed in Commissions; Judges to Hold Office During Good Behavior, etc.; Removal.] The tenure that all commissioned officers shall have by law in their offices shall be expressed in their respective commissions, and all judicial officers duly appointed, commissioned and sworn, shall hold their offices during good behavior except those for whom a different provision is made in this constitution. The governor with consent of the council may remove any commissioned officer for reasonable cause upon the address of both houses of the legislature, provided nevertheless that the cause for removal shall be stated fully and substantially in the address and shall not be a cause which is a sufficient ground for impeachment, and provided further that no officer shall be so removed unless he shall have had an opportunity to be heard in his defense by a joint committee of both houses of the legislature.

NOTE. — This article amended 1966.

NOTE. — Some printings of the Constitution have failed to substitute the word "governor" for "president" in sections 73 and 74, but there is evidence that the substitution was intended by the constitutional convention of 1791-1792, and by the people. See 10 State Papers, 143.

[Art.] 74. [Judges to Give Opinions, When.] Each branch of the legislature as well as the governor and council shall have authority to require the opinions of the justices of the supreme court upon important questions of law and upon solemn occasions.

NOTE. — This article amended in 1958.

[Art.] 75. [Justices of Peace Commissioned for Five Years.] In order that the people may not suffer from the long continuance in place of any justice of the peace who shall fail in discharging the important duties of his office with ability and fidelity, all commissions of justice of the peace shall become void at the expiration of five years from their respective dates, and upon the expiration of any commission, the same may if necessary be renewed or another person appointed as shall most conduce to the well being of the state.

NOTE. — Original section following this section, relating to probate courts, stricken out, 1793.

Annotation — 57 NH 146.

[Art.] 76. [Divorce and Probate Appeals, Where Tried.] All causes of marriage, divorce and alimony; and all appeals from the respective judges of probate shall be heard and tried by the superior court until the legislature shall by law make other provision.

Annotation — 69 NH 137, 74 NH 448, 80 NH 462, 81 NH 509, 85 NH 419, 96 NH 439.

[Art.] 77. [Jurisdiction of Justices in Civil Causes.] The general court are empowered to give to justices of the peace jurisdiction in civil causes, when the damages demanded shall not exceed one hundred dollars and title of real estate is not concerned; but with right of appeal, to either party, to some other court. And the general court are further empowered to give to police courts original jurisdiction to try and determine, subject to right of appeal and trial by jury, all criminal causes wherein the punishment is less than imprisonment in the state prison.

NOTE. — The first sentence of this article was inserted 1793; and "one hundred dollars" was substituted for "four pounds," 1877.

The words, "so that a trial by jury, in the last resort, may be had," were stricken out, 1877.

The last sentence was inserted, 1912.

Annotation — 2 NH 422, 68 NH 495, 69 NH 511, 98 NH 418, 107 NH 297.

[Art.] 78. [Judges and Sheriffs, When Disqualified by Age.] No person shall hold the office of judge of any court, or judge of probate, or sheriff of any county, after he has attained the age of seventy years.

Annotation — 63 NH 37, 83 NH 589.

[Art.] 79. [Judges and Justices Not to Act as Counsel.] No judge of any court, or justice of the peace, shall act as attorney, or be of counsel, to any party, or originate any civil suit, in matters which shall come or be brought before him as judge, or justice of the peace.

ENCOURAGEMENT OF LITERATURE, TRADES, ETC.

[Art.] 83. [Encouragement of Literature, etc.; Control of Corporations, Monopolies, etc.] Knowledge and learning, generally diffused through a community, being essential to the preservation of a free government; and spreading the opportunities and advantages of education through the various parts of the country, being highly conducive to promote this end; it shall be the duty of the legislators and magistrates, in all future periods of this government, to cherish the interest of literature and the sciences, and all seminaries and public schools, to encourage private and public institutions, rewards, and immunities for the promotion of agriculture, arts, sciences, commerce, trades, manufactures, and natural history of the country; to countenance and inculcate the principles of humanity and general benevolence, public and private charity, industry and economy, honesty and punctuality, sincerity, sobriety, and all social affections, and generous sentiments, among the people: Provided, nevertheless, that no money raised by taxation shall ever be granted or applied for the use of the schools or institutions of any religious sect or denomination. Free and fair competition in the trades and industries is an inherent and essential right of the people and should be protected against all monopolies and conspiracies which tend to hinder or destroy it. The size and functions of all corporations should be so limited and regulated as to prohibit fictitious capitalization and provision should be made for the supervision and government thereof. Therefore, all just power possessed by the state is hereby granted to the general court to enact laws to prevent the operations within the state of all persons and associations, and all trusts and corporations, foreign or domestic, and the officers thereof, who endeavor to raise the price of any article of commerce or to destroy free and fair competition in the trades and industries through combination, conspiracy, monopoly, or any other unfair means; to control and regulate the acts of all such persons, associations, corporations, trusts, and officials doing business within the state; to prevent fictitious capitalization; and to authorize civil and criminal proceedings in respect to all the wrongs herein declared against.

NOTE. — The proviso at the end of the first sentence was inserted, 1877.

The anti-monopoly clause was inserted, 1903.

 COMMISSIONS — WRITS — CONFIRMATION OF LAWS — HA-BEAS CORPUS — THE ENACTING STYLE — CONTINUANCE OF OFFICERS — PROVISION FOR FUTURE REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION — ETC.

[Art.] 84. [Oath of Civil Officers.] Any person chosen governor, councilor, senator, or representative, military or civil officer, (town officers excepted) accepting the trust, shall, before he proceeds to execute the duties of his office, make and subscribe the following declaration,
 viz. —

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, that I will bear faith and true allegiance to the United States of America and the state of New Hampshire, and will support the constitutions thereof. So help me God.

I, A. B. do solemnly and sincerely swear and affirm that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as ....., according to the best of my abilities, agreeably to the rules and regulations of this constitution and laws of the state of New Hampshire. So help me God.

Any person having taken and subscribed the oath of allegiance, and the same being filed in the secretary's office, he shall not be obliged to take said oath again.

Provided always, when any person chosen or appointed as aforesaid shall be of the denomination called Quakers, or shall be scrupulous of swearing, and shall decline taking the said oaths, such person shall take and subscribe them, omitting the word "swear," and likewise the words "So help me God," subjoining instead thereof, "This I do under the pains and penalties of perjury."

NOTE. — "Governor" substituted for "president," 1793; and the oath of allegiance substituted for original oath, 1793.

The provision dispensing with a second taking of the oath of allegiance was inserted, 1793.

The word "person" in the phrase "such person shall taken and subscribe," etc.
 was inserted in the engrossed copy of the Constitution as amended, 1793, apparently without authority.

The word here spelled "councilor" appeared as "counselor" in the constitution of October 31, 1793, and in the Revised Statutes of 1842. In the Revised Laws of 1842 it is spelled "counselor." Warrant for the present spelling is found in the context, and in GL 1878, PS 1891, PS 1901, and PL 1926.

[Art.] 85. [Before Whom Taken.] And the oaths or affirmations shall be taken and subscribed by the governor, before the president of the senate, in presence of both houses of the legislature, and by the senators and representatives before the governor and council for the time being; and by all other officers, before such persons, and in such manner as the legislature shall from time to time appoint.

NOTE. — This article was substituted for the original article, 1793.

Amended 1968.

[Art.] 86. [Form of Commissions.] All commissions shall be in the name of the state of New Hampshire, signed by the governor, and attested by the secretary, or his deputy, and shall have the great seal of the state affixed thereto.

NOTE. — "Governor" substituted for "president," 1793.

[Art.] 87. [Form of Writs.] All writs issuing out of the clerk's office in any of the courts of law, shall be in the name of the state of New Hampshire; shall be under the seal of the court whence they issue, and bear test of the chief, first, or senior justice of the court; but when such justice shall be interested, then the writ shall bear test of some other justice of the court, to which the same shall be returnable; and be signed by the clerk of such court.

[Art.] 100. [Alternate Methods of Proposing Amendments.] Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by the general court or by a constitutional convention selected as herein provided.

(a) The senate and house of representatives, voting separately, may propose amendments by a three-fifths vote of the entire membership of each house at any session.

(b) The general court, by an affirmative vote of a majority of all members of both houses voting separately, may at any time submit the question "Shall there be a convention to amend or revise the constitution?" to the qualified voters of the state. If the question of holding a convention is not submitted to the people at some time during any period of ten years, it shall be submitted by the secretary of state at the general election in the tenth year following the last submission. If a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question of holding a convention approves it, delegates shall be chosen at the next regular general election, or at such earlier time as the legislature may provide, in the same manner and proportion as the representatives to the general court are chosen. The delegates so chosen shall convene at such time as the legislature may direct and may recess from time to time and make such rules for the conduct of their convention as they may determine.

(c) Each constitutional amendment proposed by the general court or by a constitutional convention shall be submitted to the voters by written ballot and shall become a part of the constitution only after approval as provided in Article 99.

NOTE. — This article inserted 1964.

Annotation — 76 NH 612, 88 NH 495.

[Art.] 101. [Enrollment of Constitution.] This form of government shall be enrolled on parchment, and deposited in the secretary's office, and be a part of the laws of the land and printed copies thereof shall be prefixed to the books containing the laws of this state, in all future editions thereof.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Early historians record that in 1623, under the authority of an English land-grant, Captain John Mason, in conjunction with several others, sent David Thomson, a Scotchman, and Edward and Thomas Hilton, fish-merchants of London, with a number of other people in two divisions to establish a fishing colony in what is now New Hampshire, at the mouth of the Piscataqua River.

One of these divisions, under Thomson, settled near the river's mouth at a place they called Little Harbor or "Pannaway," now the town of Rye, where they erected salt-drying fish racks and a "factory" or stone house. The other division under the Hilton brothers set up their fishing stages on a neck of land eight miles above, which they called Northam, afterwards named Dover.

Nine years before that Captain John Smith of England and later of Virginia, sailing along the New England coast and inspired by the charm of our summer shores and the solitude of our countrysides, wrote back to his countrymen that:

"Here should be no landlords to rack us with high rents, or extorted fines to consume us. Here every man may be a master of his own labor and land in a short time. The sea there is the strangest pond I ever saw. What sport doth yield a more pleasant content and less hurt or charge than angling with a hook, and crossing the sweet air from isle to isle over the silent streams of a calm sea?"

Thus the settlement of New Hampshire did not happen because those who came here were persecuted out of England. The occasion, which is one of the great events in the annals of the English people, was one planned with much care and earnestness by the English crown and the English parliament. Here James the first began a colonization project which not only provided ships and provisions, but free land bestowed with but one important condition, that it remain always subject to English sovereignty.

So it remained until the "War of the Revolution." Smith first named it "North Virginia" but King James later revised this into "New England." To the map was added the name Portsmouth, taken from the English town where Captain John Mason was commander of the fort, and the name New Hampshire is that of his own English county of Hampshire.

Captain Mason died in 1635, just before his proposed trip to the new country which he never saw. He had invested more than twenty-two thousand pounds in clearing the land, building houses, and preparing for its defense, — a considerable fortune for those days. By then Dover and Portsmouth had expanded into Hampton and Exeter, and its income from fishing was increased by that from trade in furs and timber.

Taking the idea from the English government, a community of "towns" was erected, and this became a "royal province" in 1679 with John Cutt as president, with a population intended to be as nearly like England as it could be. The "royal province" continued until 1698 when it came under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts with Joseph Dudley as Governor. Thus it continued until 1741.

During that time England's throne had been ruled by William and Mary, Queen Anne, and George I, and New Hampshire was administered by no less than eight lieutenant governors. There had been much unrest in England and as a result, to New Hampshire's advantage, the Scotch settlers of Londonderry in Ireland had in 1719 sent many of their people here to form a "Scotch" colony in the new place they would call our own Londonderry.

Under King George II New Hampshire returned to its provincial status with a governor of its own, Benning Wentworth, who was its chief magistrate from 1741 to 1766.

During the first two decades of Governor Wentworth's term New Hampshire had been beset with Indian troubles. With little aid from England, then at war with its old-time enemy, France, the colonists undertook the sieges of Louisbourg, and helped to reduce Crown Point, and in the conquest of Canada. By the time of the signing of the Peace of Paris in 1762, and the end of the Indian fighting under the Rogers Rangers, the entire north country of New Hampshire was ready to be explored, surveyed, and populated.

Governor Wentworth who, as if in anticipation of this opportunity, seems to have been well prepared for it, had arranged the purchase for the sum of fifteen hundred pounds of the unauthenticated claims of Robert Mason, heir of Captain John Mason. This was done through a group of twelve influential citizens who called themselves the "Masonian Proprietors." Having done this, the governor kept the land "within the province."

Governor Wentworth, with all or most of the Masonian Proprietors as his councilors, then proceeded to grant towns to prospective settlers as equally as possible. In addition to the thirty-eight towns already granted, more than a hundred others followed after the year 1761. These towns contained lots available to more than thirty thousand families, many from the older towns in southern New Hampshire and Massachusetts, but many from other neighboring states. Some of these towns were located in Vermont, to be released later by a court order, which made the western shore of the Connecticut River the state boundary line.

While the new towns were occasionally given the names of the leading grantees, not a few of them bore the historic names of English royalty, frequently those of friends and relatives of Governor Wentworth and his own royal family, the Rockinghams, in England. Many of the beneficiaries were soldiers who had fought in the Indian wars, while a few were of Dutch origin, such as might settle from New York in New Hampshire.

The terms of the grants were simple. The Proprietors could convey only the soil, while the political rights and powers of government came from the province. Provision was made that no land should be subject to taxation or assessment until improved by those holding the titles. Rights were reserved for land for roads, churches and schools, to be built within a definite period of time, for the use of ministers and in many cases for mill-rights. Fees were nominal, often only a shilling or an ear of corn a year. All tall pines should be saved for the King's navy.

Benning Wentworth died in 1770. He was succeeded by his nephew who later became Sir John Wentworth, the last of the royal governors. He is perhaps best known because of his purchase of a thirty-six mile tract of land on the shore of Lake Winnepesaukee where he established an estate known as Kingswood. It afterward became Wolfborough.

Governor Sir John Wentworth's beneficial acts to the state included the building of roads, including one from Portsmouth to Kingswood; publishing the first accurate state map; organizing the State militia, a member of which was Major Benjamin Thompson of Concord who afterward became known as Count Rumford; his help in founding Dartmouth College; and the building of Wentworth House, now owned by the State. Loyal to the English crown, he embarked for Nova Scotia at the beginning of the Revolution, there to become its Lieutenant-governor until his death in 1820.

A pre-Revolution event occurring in New Hampshire was the removal in 1774, by a small party of patriots at New Castle, of the powder and guns at Fort William and Mary. Other Revolutionary events included New Hampshire's participation in the Battle of Bunker Hill at which nearly all the troops doing the actual fighting were said to have been from this State; the signing of the Declaration of Independence by New Hampshire's Josiah Bartlett, Matthew Thornton, and William Whipple; General John Stark's victory at the Battle of Bennington; and the success of Captain John Paul Jones at sea.

Just as it was the first to declare its independence and adopt its own constitution, New Hampshire was the ninth and deciding state in accepting the National Constitution as that of a republic, never to be known under any other form of government. New Hampshire's John Langdon was the first acting vice-president of the United States, and was President of the Senate when Washington was elected first president.

Many events have helped to individualize New Hampshire's unique history as the decades have followed each other down to the present time. Both Washington and Lafayette passed within our borders. Meshech Weare was elected the first state "president." Morey's Connecticut River steam-boat preceded Fulton's by seventeen years. An American President, Franklin Pierce, and a Vice-president, Henry Wilson, were elected, both from New Hampshire. Daniel Webster won his famous Dartmouth College case before the Supreme Court. The first American public library was established at Peterborough. The world-recognized "Concord Coach" was made here, as was America's first cog-railroad to Mount Washington dating 1869.

Statesmen, educators, inventors, preachers, scientists, explorers, authors, industrialists, engineers, lawyers, diplomats, are all arrayed in the long line of notables New Hampshire claims as coming from her soil.

GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION

New Hampshire is situated the most northern of the thirteen original states and lies between latitude 42-40 and 45-18 north and longitude 70-37 and 72-37 west. It is about 180 miles long and 50 miles wide, although the extreme width is 93 miles.

It is bounded on the north by Quebec province in Canada, on the east by Maine and the Atlantic ocean, on the south by Massachusetts, and on the west by Vermont. The Connecticut River is the western boundary.

"MOTHER OF RIVERS"

Geographies sometimes speak of the state as the "Mother of Rivers." Five of the great streams of New England originate in its granite hills. The Connecticut River rises in the northern part, and for nearly one hundred miles of its winding course hems the shores of the state with a "broad seam of silver." The Pemigewasset River starts in the Profile Lake in the Franconia mountains and joins the Winnepesaukee at Franklin to form the Merrimack, which at one time turned more spindles than any other river in the world. The Cocheco and Salmon Falls rivers join at Dover to form the Piscataqua. In addition, two of the principal rivers of Maine, the Androscoggin and the Saco, have their beginnings in northern New Hampshire.

New Hampshire has 1300 lakes or ponds and 40,000 miles of rivers and streams which provide year round fishing and recreation in scenic surroundings, as well as power for the State's many industries.

"THE GRANITE STATE"

New Hampshire is commonly known as the Granite State, and of late years by some writers is called the Queen State — "Queen by right of her natural beauty; queen by her native hardy spirit; queen by her diversified industry; queen by reason of her motherhood of great men. She is enthroned on hills of granite, diademed with sparkling waters and sceptered with industry."

The state entertains annually over a million summer visitors who resort in the mountain, lake and seashore scenery, — in fact it has been estimated that a million automobiles cross our borders annually! The soil is suitable for fruits, flowers and vegetables. The forests of pine, spruce and hard wood add beauty to the landscape and wealth to the land.

The White Mountains are the natural feature which has the widest fame. New Hampshire bodies of water cover one hundred and fifteen thousand acres and vary from small ponds to Lake Winnepesaukee, which is twenty-two miles long and eight miles wide.

New Hampshire's publicly-owned aerial tramway, the first erected to a mountain top in North America, is located in Franconia Notch near The Old Man of the Mountain. Its cars have carried 2,000,000 passengers in their eight-minute ascent of the 2022 feet to the top.

No state grows apples of finer flavor than come from the hillsides of New Hampshire. Horticultural shows have no better exhibits than are presented from towns in the southern part of this state, where the orchards have been sprayed and treated by the latest scientific methods. Strawberries, blueberries, peaches and products of the garden are grown in great quantities and shipped hundreds of miles.

New Hampshire is also famous for her products made from the sap of the maple tree.

Dairying is a large business and in recent years the quality of the herds has increased tenfold. There are 5,779,840 acres of land in the state, 1,960,061 acres being in farm land, with the number of farms estimated at 16,554, according to the 1940 farm census. There were over two and one-half million acres of timber land, which contained over thirty billion feet of merchantable timber, but the disastrous hurricane of 1938 has sadly depleted the standing timber in New Hampshire's granite hills.

It is estimated that every year more than four million dollars is permanently invested in the purchase of land and the construction of buildings in the rural districts. Nearly every town has some summer visitors. Winnepesaukee shores are lined with cottages and hotels; Sunapee has a summer population of over five thousand, who enjoy its beauties.

The state has a seaboard of about eighteen miles. Hampton and Rye beaches have been famous summer resorts since the days Whittier pitched his "tent on the beach." The salt waves of the Atlantic lap the sometimes sandy, sometimes rocky coast into one continuous pleasure ground, where surf bathing and scenic beauty enchant the visitor. In the early fall of 1915 a disastrous fire at Hampton Beach destroyed many of the hotels and places of business there, but the resort has since been rebuilt from the ruins until it is larger and more attractive than ever. The recreational area at Hampton Beach has greatly improved the appearance of that part of the coast. The state maintains a large public bath house and a parking area there. The erection of a sea wall in 1934 not only improved the property along the coast but was a necessary measure against coast erosion.

Among New Hampshire's all-year, all-season recreation attractions, none are more popular than its winter sports. Mount Washington is the highest mountain east of the Rockies and north of the Mason-Dixon Line. Its privately-owned cog railway was the first mountain climbing railway in the world.

New Hampshire has some of the finest ski terrain in the east where the sport may be enjoyed well into July and August. Its many lifts include the widely known Cranmore skimobile, operated all year, and Tuckerman, Cannon, Sunapee and Gilford slopes.

Portsmouth, the only sea city, has an historic past and a prosperous present with its large navy yard. New Castle is a place of romance and aesthetic beauty and adventure. A large part of the Isles of Shoals in Portsmouth harbor belongs to New Hampshire, with their cottages and hotels. Lobster fishermen find the Isles of Shoals and the New Hampshire coast favorable areas for taking this famous sea food. The state highways are as fine as any state can boast of and are kept in excellent driving condition the year round. New Hampshire is open to visitors, from the coast to the mountains, twelve months in the year.

FISH AND GAME

In 1865 New Hampshire joined the vanguard of American science by establishing a fish and game department, the first one of its kind in New England. Since that date, some eighty odd years ago, the efforts of this department have been devoted to the propagation and conservation of fish and game.

In modern times the cultivation of fish and the protection of wild life have demanded the application of scientific methods quite as much as any other element of our life. It is a known fact that while European countries have found vast resources in their shore fisheries, the United States is by no means able to rely on her coast fisheries, and has thus been obliged to develop her inland waters to meet the needs that otherwise could have been met only by importation from other countries. Moreover, while Europe's supply is bound to lessen in time to come, our supply will continue to increase.

Today, New Hampshire's Fish and Game Department employs a balanced team of trained wildlife men, fish culturists, and law enforcement officers to maintain and increase the available supplies of her native species under the pressure of vastly increased demand. To do so means that every one of her waters and every bit of cover must be contributing its full share to the state's crop. Research personnel are constantly exploring new avenues to increase natural productivity, while evaluating the results of current practices.

Since World War II, a program of modernization and expansion of fish rearing facilities has more than doubled the annual output available for stocking. Beautiful new rearing stations which rank with any in the country for modern design and efficient operation have been built at Merrymeeting Lake in New Durham, at Summer Brook in Ossipee, and at Merrinack, between Manchester and Nashua. Five other stations at Colebrook, Twin Mountain, Warren, New Hampton, and Richmond have been completely reconditioned.

Fish and game is now recognized as a major factor in the recreation business which is one of New Hampshire's foremost sources of revenue. We can be justly proud of the effective teamwork between department personnel and the sportsmen of the state who are looking forward with the eye of true conservationists to establishing the fish and wildlife species of our state on a secure footing for future years. Deer, grouse, black bear, snowshoe hares, landlocked salmon, togue, black bass, and several species of brook trout are only a few of the wild residents which are to be found in such plenty as to make sportsmen choose New Hampshire first.

"COME TO NEW HAMPSHIRE"

New Hampshire believes in progress and development in every direction. It is the third most industrialized state in the Union and prizes itself on the quality and diversification of its products. New Hampshire is the home of the famous breed of poultry known as the "New Hampshires." She invites the whole world to visit her mountains, the "playground of America." Those seeking opportunity for profitable farming will do well to write for further information to the Commissioner of Agriculture, Concord, N. H.; sportsmen are invited to send for literature and advice to the Fish and Game Director, Concord, N. H.; those looking for business openings, either in manufacturing enterprises or in the retail field, should correspond with the New Hampshire Dept. of Resources and Economic Development, Concord, N. H.

The Boston & Maine Railroad Publicity Bureau at Boston, Mass., Storrowton Village, Eastern States Exposition Grounds, West Springfield, Mass., the New Hampshire Manufacturers' Association and the New Hampshire Historical Society, Concord, N. H., are other sources from which information not given in this volume may be secured.

THE STATE HOUSE

The first discussions regarding the erection of a suitable state capitol building in New Hampshire took place in the year 1814. It was indeed a memorable year. The War of 1812 had come to a close with the signing of the Treaty of Ghent, although the news had not reached America until after our troops under General Jackson had continued fighting into 1815 and won the famous battle of New Orleans.

Other matters attracted state attention. One was the election of a "Republican" governor, William Plumer, who defeated the "Federalists." Another was the Dartmouth College case in which the Governor favored state domination of the College. The legislature considered the proposed new capitol building, but first had to determine in what locality it would be.

The contest was between Concord, Hopkinton, and Salisbury, the last named town having offered seven thousand dollars for the honor. In the end Concord won, and by 1816 final action had been taken to build there.

Considerable expense was saved the town of Concord by the decision to build the Capitol of granite from what are now the Swenson quarries at the north end of the town, and to have the cutting and shaping and facing of the stones done by the inmates of the prison.

A feature of the new and imposing building thus provided was its huge gold-painted wooden eagle, which was raised to the top of the dome in 1818. Appropriate ceremonies presided over by Governor Plumer were marked by a series of toasts, one of which was, "The American Eagle. May the shadow of his wings protect every acre of our united continent and the lightning of his eye flash terror and defeat through the ranks of our enemies."

The new building's actual cost was only approximately $82,000, but it provided adequate quarters for the legislature and committees, the Governor and Council, the Secretary of State, the Treasurer, and the library. Stuart J. Park, the builder, goes down in history as having done an admirable job, and he has a Concord street to the north of the building, Park Street, named in his honor. The first session of the legislature to be held in the new building was in 1819.

There is no record of discussion of enlargements or expansion of Capitol facilities until 1857. At that time there was pointed out the need for more library space and rooms for new departments. Nothing was done, however, until the problem became acute in one of the Civil War years, 1863, through the offer of the city of Manchester of a sizeable sum to build a new capitol and locate it there. This amount was stated to be no less than half a million dollars.

The legislature having voted to retain the Capitol in Concord, plans were at once made to undertake its enlargement and remodeling. This was begun in 1864 and completed by 1866. The cost was said to have been approximately $200,000.

In 1881, plans having been proposed to gain new space for needs caused by growth in State operations, by the removal of the library to a building of its own, plans for such a building were made. These plans, as ultimately adopted, not only provided for a "State Library," but for the Supreme Court as well, and the building was finally completed in 1895. The Library was later enlarged in 1903.

Not until 1903 was the problem of increasing needs for more space in the conduct of the State's business to come under discussion. In this discussion the point was conclusively made that "the majority of State offices cannot be provided with accommodations and are located in other buildings . . ." and that this was uneconomical and ought to be corrected.

Acting under a resolution which instructed the Governor and Council to remedy this situation, Governor Bachelder employed a firm of Boston architects to prepare a plan for an extensive enlargement of the Capitol.

The arguments included the danger from fire, the inadequacy of the House and Senate to seat the membership, and the lack of meeting rooms for the legislative committees. This called for what amounted to an entirely new state house at an expense of approximately a million dollars, and by 1909 a bill for such an amount was introduced.

Again the city of Manchester entered the scene, offering the million if the state house might be removed and rebuilt there. The legislature voted again to retain the Capitol in Concord, and an act for the issuance of bonds for the construction required was passed.

Governor Quimby and his Council then employed architects under whose plans the entire building was remodeled precisely as it is today, making the entire building fire-proof in all its parts, providing electric elevators, modern lighting, vaults, and an up-to-date heating system. During the years following, the proposal of 1903 regarding the necessity of providing for the various departments under one head was again considered, and plans were drawn in 1937 for the present State House Annex.

The corner-stone for this new undertaking was laid in 1938, and the cost at completion, including a considerable grant from the federal government, amounted to $327,000. Here are housed more than twenty of the State's departments in modern, well-equipped offices. The Annex is connected by an underground passageway with the Capitol itself.

Since the building of the Annex, other improvements have been undertaken to keep the State government in step with modern progress. Recently the entire outer surface of the Capitol Building has been expertly sanded and washed, restoring the granite stones to their original clean, fresh appearance.

Likewise the statues of John Stark, Daniel Webster, President Pierce, John P. Hale, and Commodore Perkins have been properly cleaned and made tarnishproof by a modern professional process. Also the gilded wooden eagle, the Capitol Building's long familiar emblem, having been found to be suffering from the effects of many decades of weathering, has been replaced by an element-proof metal replica which now adorns the dome where its gold will glisten in the sunshine of long years to come. These things are among the accomplishments of the administration of Governor Lane Dwinell.

As parts of Massachusetts Bay Colony (1641-3 to 1679) the towns of Hampton, Exeter, Dover, and Strawberry Bank were comprised within Norfolk county, which was one of the four shires, viz., Essex, Middlesex, Suffolk, and Norfolk, into which the Bay Colony was separated from "3d month, 10th day 1643."

The Province of New Hampshire agitated the subject of county establishment for years previous to decisive action in 1769, one plan, which came to nought in 1755, being to make two counties, Portsmouth; and Cumberland, with the Merrimack as the dividing line.

The act which passed April 29, 1769, contained the provision that it should not take effect until "his majesty's royal approbation thereof be known," and the further provision that "said counties of Strafford and Grafton shall be for the present annexed to and deemed and taken as parts and members of the County of Rockingham *** until the governor by and with the advice of the council shall declare them respectively sufficient for the exercise of their respective jurisdictions and no longer." Governor John Wentworth, in a message to the house of representatives in March, 1771, said "it gives me great pleasure to inform you that his majesty has been graciously pleased to approve and confirm the act for dividing this Province into counties." The existence of Rockingham, Hillsborough, and Cheshire counties began on March 19, 1771, Strafford and Grafton having received authority to exercise and enjoy county privileges, as set forth in Governor John Wentworth's message to the house on May 28, 1772, their separation from Rockingham became effective on June 5, 1773, by the terms of the act of February 5, 1773, "fixing the times and places for holding courts in *** Grafton county," four months being allowed for the building of "prisons, court houses," etc.

FIRST DIVISION

The division of 1769, by the "Act for dividing this Province into Counties and for the more easy administration of Justice," was as follows: "The bounds of the first County to begin at the mouth of Piscataqua River and to run up the same to the Easterly corner of Newmarket including the River, and from thence Northwesterly by the Easterly and Northerly sidelines of Newmarket, Epping, Nottingham, Chichester and Canterbury to the River, and down the same line of Concord including the River, then round the Westerly Lines of Bow, Concord and Pembroke to Merrimack River, thence down the same to the North west corner of Derryfield, thence by the Easterly lines of Derryfield, Litchfield and Nottingham. West to the Province Line, thence by said line to the Sea, thence by the Sea to the bounds first mentioned, including all that part of the Isles of Shoals which belongs to this Province.

"The Bounds of the Second County to begin at the North west corner of Canterbury, and from thence to cross the River, then down the River to Pemigewasset, then to run up Pemigewasset River to Campton, thence round the Westerly end of Campton, and by the Northerly sidelines of Campton, Sandwich & Tamworth & thence Easterly to the Province line, on the same course with the Northerly sideline of Eaton, thence down said Province line to the line of the first County, thence by the same to the bounds first mentioned.

"The bounds of the Third County to begin at the South East corner of Nottingham West, thence by the Province line to the South East corner of Rindge, thence by the Easterly sideline of Rindge, Monadnock Number two, Dublin, the Townships Number Six, Number Seven & Number Eight, thence to the South end of Sunnape Pond, thence by the Easterly side of said Pond, to the North end thereof, thence by the North westerly sideline of Dantzick Heidlebourg, and by the Northerly sidelines of Heidlebourg and North Westerly sideline of Emery's Town to Pemigewasset River, thence down the same to the bounds of the first County, thence by the same to the bounds first mentioned.

"The bounds of the Fourth County to begin at the South East corner of Rindge, & from thence to run Westerly by the Province line to the Western Banks of Connecticut River, thence up the same till it comes opposite to the North west corner of Plainfield, then crossing the River to the last mentioned corner of Plainfield, thence by the Northerly sidelines of Plainfield & Grantham, to the North East corner of Grantham thence by the Easterly sideline of Grantham & the North sideline of Saville to the boundary line of the third County, thence by the same to the bounds first mentioned.

"And the fifth County to contain all the lands in the Province not comprehended in the other Countys.

"And all the Towns, Parishes, Precincts or Places within the bounds aforesaid respectively shall be deemed, accepted, named & taken as parts and Members of the respective Countys aforesaid. And the Names of the said Counties shall be and are hereby as follows viz the name of the first County Rockingham, the name of the second County Strafford, the Name of the Third County Hillsborough, the Name of the fourth County Cheshire, the Name of the fifth County Grafton.***

"That the said Counties of Strafford & Grafton shall be for the present annexed to, & deemed & taken as parts and Members of the County of Rockingham and Subject to the Jurisdiction and Authority of the Courts, Magistrates and Officers of the said County of Rockingham to all intents and purposes and shall remain so annexed, deemed & taken and Subject until the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Council shall declare them respectively sufficient for the exercise of their respective Jurisdictions and no longer.***

"That the Times and Places of holding the said Courts in the said Counties of Strafford and Grafton shall be established as the Governor, Council and Assembly shall Judge most Convenient at the Time the Governor and Council shall determine they may assume the actual exercise of their County Privileges. — But that this act nor any Clause therein shall be in force nor have any Effect till his Majesty's Royal approbation thereof be known."

BELKNAP AND CARROLL COUNTIES CONSTITUTED

The "act to constitute the counties of Belknap and Carroll," approved Dec. 22, 1840, contained these provisions: "Belknap shall contain all the land and waters included within the following towns and places which now contains a part of the County of Strafford, to wit: Alton, Barnstead, Centre Harbor, Gilford, Gilmanton, Meredith, New Hampton and Sanbornton.

"Carroll shall contain all the land and waters included within the following towns and places which now constitute a part of said County of Strafford, to wit: Albany, Brookfield, Chatham, Conway, Eaton, Effingham, Freedom, Moultonborough, Sandwich, Tamworth, Tuftonborough, Ossipee, Wakefield and Wolfeborough." The supplementary act of Jan. 29, 1841, established a boundary line "beginning at the easterly termination of the line dividing the towns of Meredith and Moultonborough; thence running easterly to the Southerly point of Long Island in Winnipissiogee Lake; thence easterly to the Southerly point of Parker's island; thence easterly to the westerly termination of the line dividing the towns of Wolfborough and Alton; and all the lands and waters lying northerly of Said line and between that and Said towns of Moultonborough, Tuftonborough and Wolfborough shall constitute a part of Said County of Carroll; and all the lands and waters lying Southerly of Said line and between that and said towns of Meredith, Gilford and Alton Shall constitute a part of Said County of Belknap."

On March 23, 1897, the boundary line between Belknap and Carroll Counties was established as follows:

"The County of Belknap is bounded thus: beginning at the easterly corner of Pittsfield; thence by the northerly lines of Pittsfield, Loudon, Canterbury, Northfield, and Franklin to the westerly line of Sanbornton; thence by the westerly lines of Sanbornton and New Hampton to the southerly line of Ashland; thence by the southerly line of Ashland and Holderness to the westerly line of Center Harbor; thence by the westerly line of Center Harbor to the northerly corner of Center Harbor; thence by the northerly line of Center Harbor to the easterly termination of the line separating the towns of Center Harbor and Moultonborough; thence easterly to the southerly point of Long Island in Winnepesaukee Lake; thence easterly to the southerly part of Parker's Island; thence easterly to the northwesterly end of Keniston's Island, sometimes called Baker's Island; Thence along the southerly shore of said island to the easterly end of the same; thence to the westerly termination of the line separating the towns of Wolfeborough and Alton; thence on the northerly line of Alton to the northerly corner of New Durham; thence by the county of Strafford to the bound first mentioned.

"All of the islands in said Lake Winnepesaukee lying southerly of said line, excepting Diamond Island, and between the easterly and westerly lines of Alton shall belong to and become a part of said Alton, and all the Islands in said lake lying north of said line, between the easterly and westerly lines of Wolfeborough, shall belong to and become a part of said Wolfeborough."

THE COUNTIES

When New Hampshire was a part of the colony of Massachusetts Bay, from 1641 to 1679, the principal towns of New Hampshire were part of Norfolk county in Massachusetts. New Hampshire did not divide herself into counties, however, until 1769, six years before the Revolution. In that year the five counties of Rockingham, Strafford, Hillsborough, Cheshire and Grafton were established.

Coos was the sixth county, established in 1803. Merrimack was established in 1823, Sullivan in 1827, and Belknap and Carroll in 1840. Since the original division into counties the legislature on twenty occasions has amended and changed the layout. The following is a list of counties in their customary order, giving the name of each, the date of its establishment and the place of the county seat.

Name	Date	County Seat
Belknap	1840	Laconia
Carroll	1840	Ossipee
Cheshire	1769	Keene
Coos	1803	Lancaster
Grafton	1769	Haverhill
Hillsborough	1769	Nashua
Merrimack	1823	Concord
Rockingham	1769	Exeter
Strafford	1769	Dover
Sullivan	1827	Newport

Belknap county takes in the lake region in the central part of the state. Dr. Jeremy Belknap, minister at Portsmouth was the author of a history of the state of New Hampshire. It includes the city of Laconia and ten towns.

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Under the constitutional apportionment which provided for a house of representatives in congress, New Hampshire was allotted three seats. The national census of 1790 (first census) increased this to four, the second census of 1800 to five and the third census of 1810 to six seats. The census of 1830 reduced it to five, that of 1840 to four and that of 1850 to three. The census of 1870 reduced it to two, but the seat taken away was restored until the next census of 1880, since then the state has had two representatives.

Revolutionary Councilors, 1776-84

Article 60 of the second part of the constitution provides for an executive council of five men to advise and act with the governor. Before the constitution there was a council both under the temporary constitution of the Revolution and under the provincial government. Since 1913 councilors have been elected by plurality vote to represent population but previously to that they were elected by majority vote to represent property, and in the colonial days they were appointed.

The following is a complete list of all the councilors since the Revolution giving the name and address of each and the year in which he was elected or appointed.

*Died in 1931. Special election January 5, 1932 to fill vacancy.

†In 1937 Arthur B. Jenks took his seat in Congress. Following a contested election Congress seated Alphonse Roy in 1939. Arthur B. Jenks was elected in the 1938 general election.

THE SENATE

The senate began under the constitution and first met in 1784. There were at first twelve senators who represented the five counties that then existed, five senators from Rockingham county, two from Strafford, two from Hillsborough, two from Cheshire and one from Grafton. In 1793 senatorial districts were created to take the place of county representation and each district elected one senator. The elections during the early years took place in March and the legislature met in June annually.

The senatorial districting of 1793 was changed over in 1803 and several times subsequently. In 1878 the senate was doubled in size. In 1915 the senators were elected by plurality instead of majority vote. The following is a complete list of the senators from the beginning, showing the name and residence of each member of each senate, arranged in the order of districts from 1793, when the districts were created, and previous to that year, in the order of counties.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Articles 66, 67 and 68 of the second part of the constitution provide for a department of state with a secretary of state who is elected biennially by the legislature and a deputy secretary of state appointed by the secretary. In the colonial period there was a secretary appointed by the chief executive, but no deputy. During the revolutionary period and under the constitution of 1784 the secretary was chosen by the legislature and given authority to have several deputies, but in 1793 the constitution was changed to provide for a single deputy.

The following is a list of the secretaries of state from the beginning, together with the term which each served and a list of the deputy secretaries.

STATE EMBLEMS

CHAPTER 3

State Emblems, Flags, etc.

REVISED STATUTES ANNOTATED

3:1. State Emblem. The state emblem shall be of the following design: Within an elliptical panel, the longest dimension of which shall be vertical, there shall appear an appropriate replica of the Old Man of the Mountains; surrounding the inner panel, and enclosed within another ellipse, there shall be at the bottom of the design the words of any state motto which may be adopted by the general court; and at the top of the design, between the inner and outer elliptical panels, the words, New Hampshire, appropriately separated from the motto, if adopted, by one star on each side. Said emblem may be placed on all printed or related material issued by the state and its subdivisions relative to the development of recreational, industrial, and agricultural resources of the state.

3:2. State Flag. The state flag shall be of the following color and design: The body or field shall be blue and shall bear upon its center in suitable proportion and colors a representation of the state seal. The seal shall be surrounded by a wreath of laurel leaves with nine stars interspersed. When used for military purposes the flag shall conform to the regulations of the United States.

3:3. — When Displayed. It shall be displayed above the state house whenever the legislature is in session and during meetings of the governor and council when expedient, and upon such other occasions as the governor may designate.

3:4. — Permission to Use. The governor is authorized to make rules and regulations governing the use and display of the state flag not inconsistent with the provisions of RSA 573, and it shall be lawful to use and display said flag in accordance with such rules and regulations. This section shall be construed to encourage the display of the state flag on public buildings.

3:5. State Flower. The purple lilac, Syringa Vulgaris, is the state flower of New Hampshire.

3:6. State Tree. The white birch tree, Betula Papyrifera, is the state tree of New Hampshire.

3:7. State Song. The song "Old New Hampshire" with words by Dr. John F. Holmes and music by Maurice Hoffmann is hereby declared to be the state song of New Hampshire.

3:7-a. Second State Song. In addition to the state song as provided by section 7 the song "New Hampshire, my New Hampshire" with music by Walter P. Smith and words by Julius Richelson shall be the second state song.

3:7-b [New] Third State Song. In addition to the state songs as provided by RSA 3:7 and RSA 3:7-a, the song "New Hampshire Hills" with music by Tom Powers and words by Paul Mowrer shall be the third state song.

3:8. State Motto. The words "Live Free or Die," written by General John Stark, July 31, 1809, shall be the official motto of the state.

3:9. State Seal. The seal of the state shall be two inches in diameter, circular, with the following detail and no other: A field crossed by a straight horizon line of the sea, above the center of the field; concentric with the field the rising sun, exposed above the horizon about one third of its diameter; the field encompassed with laurel; across the field for the full width within the laurel a broadside view of the frigate Raleigh, on the stocks; the ship's bow dexter and higher than the stern; the three lower masts shown in place, together with the fore, main and mizzen tops, shrouds and mainstays; an ensign staff at the stern flies the United States flag authorized by act of Congress June 14, 1777; a jury staff on the mainmast and another on the foremast each flies a pennant; flags and pennants are streaming to the dexter side; the hull is shown without a rudder; below the ship the field is divided into land and water by a double diagonal line whose highest point is sinister; no detail is shown anywhere on the water, nor any on the land between the water and the stocks except a granite boulder on the dexter side; encircling the field is the inscription, SEAL . OF . THE . STATE . OF . NEW HAMPSHIRE, the words separated by round periods, except between the parts of New Hampshire; at the lowest point of the inscription is the date 1776, flanked on either side by a five-pointed star, which group separates the beginning and end of the inscription; the whole form and design to be as follows:

3:9-a [New] Unauthorized Use Prohibited. The state seal shall be the property of the state of New Hampshire. No person shall manufacture, sell, expose for sale, or have in his possession for sale any article or substance, being an article of merchandise or receptacle of merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise, or sell, expose for sale, give away, or have in possession for sale or to give away or for any purpose any article or thing to advertise or promote services, upon which shall have been printed, painted, attached, or otherwise placed a representation or likeness of the state seal, provided, however, that upon application, the secretary of state may authorize the use of the state seal. Once such approval is given, such use shall be exempt from the provisions of this section until or unless such approval is revoked or suspended by the secretary of state.

3:10. State Bird. The purple finch is hereby designated as the official state bird of New Hampshire.

FEDERAL CENSUS

---

---

THE UNITED STATES

---

The United States is composed of fifty states, one district, one commonwealth, and five major non-contiguous territories and possessions.

The republic originated in the rebellion of the British Colonies of North America, Canada excepted, in 1776, and in the Declaration of Independence, the thirteen colonies in revolt styled themselves "The United States of America."

The Canadian boundary line is 3,900 miles in length, the Mexican boundary line being 1,975 miles in length.

According to the 1940 Federal census, the first basic re-measurement of the land and water area of the continental United States since 1880 showed a total area of 3,022,387 square miles, consisting of 2,977,128 square miles land area, and 45,259 square miles inland water area. The total area of Alaska, according to this census, is 586,400 square miles and the total area of Hawaii is 6,419 square miles.

The Capitol of the United States is at Washington, D. C. The corner stone of the original building was laid on September 18, 1793 by President George Washington. The original building was finally completed in 1827, its cost, including the grading of grounds, alterations and repairs up to that year, having been $2,433,844.13.

FEDERAL CENSUS OF 1970

The State. New Hampshire was one of the Thirteen Original States. Its population on April 1, 1970, according to the Twenty-first Census, was 737,681. The State has a land area of 9,017 square miles. In 1970 there was an average of 81.8 inhabitants per square mile as compared with an average of 67.3 in 1960.

The official population count of the State as of April 1, 1970, was 737,681. This represents an increase of 130,760, or 21.5 percent, from the 606,921 inhabitants of the State in 1960.

This report presents final 1970 census statistics on the number of inhabitants of the State and its counties, classified by urban and rural residence. In addition, figures are shown for each county subdivision, each incorporated place, and each unincorporated place of 1,000 or more.

The figures presented here are being issued in advance of their publication in Final Report Series PC(1)-A. The final report for this state will be issued within the next few months.

An outline of the 1970 census publication program can be obtained free of charge from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C. 20233 or any U. S. Department of Commerce Field Office.

In 1790 New Hampshire had a population of 141,885 (Table 1). In 1970, 180 years later, its population was over five times as large. In the twentieth century, the intercensal rates of growth ranged from a low of 2.9 per cent to a record high of 21.5 per cent. In 1900 the population of the State was 411,588, and in 1960 it was 606,921.

Urban and rural residence. — According to the definition adopted for use in the 1970 census, the urban population comprises all persons living in urbanized areas and in places of 2,500 inhabitants or more outside urbanized areas. More specifically, the urban population consists of all persons living in (a) places of 2,500 inhabitants or more incorporated as cities, villages, boroughs (except in Alaska), and towns (except in the New England States, New York, and Wisconsin), but excluding those persons living in the rural portions of extended cities (see "Urbanized areas," below); (b) unincorporated places of 2,500 inhabitants or more; and (c) other territory, incorporated or unincorporated, included in urbanized areas. The population not classified as urban constitutes the rural population.

Urbanized areas. — An urbanized area generally contains at least one city of 50,000 inhabitants or more and includes that portion of the surrounding territory, whether incorporated or unincorporated, which meets specified criteria relating to population density. There are a few urbanized areas which are based on "twin central cities" that have a combined population of at least 50,000. Some urbanized areas contain one or more incorporated places designated as "extended cities." These places are so designated because they have one or more large portions (normally at the boundary of the city) with relatively low population density. These portions are classified as rural and the residents are not included in the population of the urbanized area.

County subdivisions. — The Census Bureau presents statistics for subdivisions of counties, as follows:

- (a) By minor civil divisions in 28 States — Arkansas, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.
- (b) By census county divisions in 21 States — Alabama, Arizona, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Kentucky, Montana, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.
- (c) In Alaska, by boroughs and reservations for those census divisions (the county equivalent) which are so subdivided.

Minor civil divisions (townships, districts, etc.) are the primary political divisions into which counties are subdivided. In some States, incorporated places are minor civil divisions in their own right. In other States they are subordinate to the minor civil division in which they are located, or the pattern is mixed — some incorporated places are independent minor civil divisions and others are subordinate to the minor civil division.

Census county divisions represent community areas which have been defined in recent decades by the Census Bureau with the cooperation of the Governors and State and local officials. These areas have physical features (roads, streams, etc.) as boundaries or follow the limits of incorporated places. The census county divisions in these States have replaced a variety of minor civil divisions which were unsatisfactory for statistical purposes principally because their boundaries frequently changed, were imaginary lines, or were not well known by many of the inhabitants.

Incorporated places. — Political units recognized as incorporated places in the reports of the census are those which are incorporated as cities, boroughs, towns, and villages, with the following exceptions: (a) boroughs in Alaska, and (b) towns in the New England States, New York, and Wisconsin. For extended cities (see "Urbanized areas" above), the data in table 2 refer to all of the population residing within the corporate limits of the city. For these cities, table 3 shows the urban and rural parts separately; comparable 1960 data are not available because this concept was not used prior to 1970.

Unincorporated places. — As in the 1950 and 1960 censuses, the Bureau has delineated boundaries for closely settled population centers without corporate limits. All such places of 1,000 inhabitants or more are shown in tables 2 and 3, and are identified with the letter "U."

Boundary changes. — The boundaries of some of the areas shown in this report may have changed between 1960 and 1970. The 1960 figures given here have generally not been adjusted for such changes. Specific information on the changes will be presented in the Series PC(1)-A final report for this State.

Percents and symbols. — Percents which round to less than 0.1 are shown as zero. A dash "—" signifies zero. Three dots "..." mean not applicable. Minus sign preceding a figure denotes decrease. The symbol "NA" means not available, and "U" means that the place is unincorporated. In table 3, an asterisk "*" denotes an incorporated place under 2,500 located in an urbanized area.

*According to the new urban definition, the urban population comprises persons residing in urban territory but not necessarily in an urban place, which is defined as an incorporated place of 2,500 or more, or an unincorporated place of 2,500 or more located outside an urbanized area. Under the old definition, incorporated places of 2,500 or more and places urban under special rule are classified as urban places.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY, 1976

A Presidential Primary was held February 24, 1976 for the choice of delegates to the national conventions.

The Republican party elected fifteen delegates at large and fifteen alternate delegates at large; also three delegates from each of the two Congressional Districts and the same number of alternate delegates from each District.

The Democratic party elected nine delegates from the First Congressional District and nine alternate delegates; and eight delegates from the Second Congressional District and eight alternate delegates.

The following summary tables show the names of the candidates for delegates at large, their alternates; district delegates and their alternates; with the number of votes for each; also the person, if any, to whom each was favorable or pledged.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Questions submitted to the qualified voters of New Hampshire, February 24, 1976, together with the votes on each question:

(Questions proposed by the 1974 Constitutional Convention)

1. Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to provide that the governor shall have ten days, instead of five, to act on legislation submitted to him, and 'o provide that the governor shall recall the legislature for the sole purpose of reconsidering any bills he has vetoed after it had adjourned and to allow pay and mileage to the legislature at the same rate payable at special sessions?

Yes 75,534                      No 104,594

2. Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to allow the legislature to call itself into special session with customary pay and mileage by a majority vote of each house instead of a two-thirds of each house?

Yes 63,973                      No 115,800

3. Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to eliminate the authority of the governor to prorogue (that is, to extend) the recess of the legislature for up to ninety days?

Yes 77,899                      No 99,714

4. Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to provide that all legislators, for actual daily attendance on legislative days in regular or special session, shall be compensated at the computed daily rate of the salary established for the lowest grade classified state employee and that the presiding officers shall also be compensated when attending to legislative business on non-legislative days; and that all legislators shall receive mileage payments at the same rate as paid to state employees?

Yes 78,511                      No 97,941

5. Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to provide that when the office of governor is vacant, when the governor determines that he is unwilling or unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, or when the supreme court upon motion of a majority of the executive council and after hearing determines that the governor is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the senior member of the council shall function as governor?

Yes 92,373                      No 84,401

* * *

(Question proposed by the 1975 General Court)

6. Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to allow district courts to try persons for crimes committed in a county other than the county where the court sits, with the result that the legislature could create district courts containing towns and cities located in more than one county?

Yes 98,498                      No 74,708

DIRECT PRIMARY, 1976

Persons voted for at a primary, who received a plurality of all the votes cast by a party, shall be candidates of that party for the office designated in the ballot. — RSA 56:53.

The direct primary election was held September 14, 1976, with candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties participating.

In the summary immediately following are the full names and residences of the candidates, also their total votes. Then follow tables carrying the vote in detail and giving only the last names of the candidates.

The first tables give by counties the vote for Governor. The next tables give by districts the votes for Representatives in Congress, the votes for Councilors, and the votes for State Senators. Then follow the tables showing the votes for county offices, and recounts after the Primary.

RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the Primary, thirteen requests for recounts were received. The request for a recount of ballots cast for State Senator, District No. 18, Democratic, was withdrawn.

Twelve recounts of ballots were conducted by the Secretary of State, October 1, 1976; six recounts were Republican contests, and six were Democratic contests.

One of the recounts resulted in a change in Rockingham County District No. 6 for Representative to the General Court — Republican. The recount resulted in a tie vote between D. Ronald Cutliffe and Delight Reese. The tie was broken by drawing lots and D. Ronald Cutliffe won the tie.

The other recounts did not result in a change of nominees.

Following are the tables, with the nominees of the Republican and Democratic parties indicated by an asterisk.

PREAMBLE TO THE 1976 REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION PROGRAM

We, the Republican Party in Convention assembled at Manchester, on Sunday, the 3rd day of October, 1976, and in the Bicentennial year of our nation's birth, do hereby adopt the following statements of principle and beliefs for our Party for the next biennium of the State of New Hampshire.

The Republican Party has traditionally stood for economical government that is responsive to our people, with the full realization that government will always face continuing problems. We reaffirm these Republican principles: that government be of, by and for the people; that the best government is the government closest to the people that provides the least interference with their daily lives and that rejects unnecessary taxes.

We reaffirm our Federal and State constitutional rights, to govern ourselves as a free, sovereign, and independent State, except for those powers expressly delegated to the Federal government — and we urge the Federal government not to exceed these constitutional bounds.

We endorse the Republican Party's National Platform.

We pledge to maintain the basic Republican doctrines of free enterprise and sound fiscal management of public affairs. Within these Republican doctrines, we pledge to accelerate our efforts to provide for the economic well-being of our citizens through the creation of new jobs, the attraction of industry, and maintaining fiscal responsibility and common-sense business management in our government's operations.

We believe we should always be responsive to the needs of our people and that our public officials should be accountable at all times to the taxpayers.

We urge greater participation in government by all the voters.

We urge support of and for all Republican candidates as a means of assuring the continuation of good government in New Hampshire.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Elderly

We will continue to work to exempt our elderly citizens from the payment of the interest and dividend taxes and from rooms and meals tax.

We will introduce a simple identification card system which will verify the status of our senior citizens for participation in services and programs available throughout our state.

We will seek continued expansion of our nutrition services.

We will give priority to greater utilization of available transportation and coordination of transportation programs for our elderly citizens.

We will encourage a true $5000 tax deduction for the needy elderly as the present law intended.

We encourage expansion of programs for elderly housing.

Social Services

We are proud of the gains we have made in the field of social services. We continue to make substantial improvements in our State Hospital and will make the improvement of Laconia School a top priority.

We understand the dire need for welfare benefits for those in honest need. We will continue to fight vigorously against waste and fraud in welfare funds so that these monies may be directed to the truly needy in our state.

Pornography, particularly in the hands of children, will meet with our strong resistance.

Careful regulation of homes for child and day care will be maintained.

We will strive for sanitary, pleasant housing for all of our citizens within reasonable tenant-landlord relations.

We will continue to seek adoption of a uniform code on alcoholism and drug abuse with provisions for medical care and rehabilitative treatment for all persons who are alcohol and drug dependent.

Education

We pledge to encourage public and non-public school systems to re-emphasize the basic skills. Also, we will urge instruction in the lower grades in money management and economics.

We pledge to support the University System within the framework of the ability of the taxpayer to pay and we will continue to give preferential treatment on tuition and acceptance in the University System to New Hampshire residents.

We urge the United States Supreme Court to re-examine the question of voluntary prayer in our schools and therefore recognize that our country's greatness is built upon values which are based upon a belief in God.

We encourage education of the handicapped and those with learning disabilities with the ultimate aim of getting these persons into the mainstream of our society. We urge National and State legislative bodies to give attention to this problem.

We feel local control and parental involvement makes for a stronger, healthier and better managed school system.

We know that non-public schools and colleges are strengthening factors in making a better New Hampshire. We advocate keeping them healthy and productive.

We enthusiastically endorse the vocational education regional programs in the secondary schools and support increased emphasis on the expansion of this program.

Dignity and self respect are most easily achieved when one is working and productive. Therefore, we continue our support for the Vocational Rehabilitation and Manpower Training programs.

NATURAL AND ECONOMIC RESOURCES

Environment

We urge the continuance of the clean-up of our air and waters. We support environmental considerations which are in balance with needed economic programs.

Recreation

We reaffirm our pledge to encourage the expansion and development of recreational areas by the public and private sectors.

Development

We believe land use considerations should be based upon the ability of the land to support a proposed use and that decision to effect this end be made at the local level.

We support the simplification of existing control agencies and oppose any new state control systems.

We strongly support efforts to preserve our forest and agricultural lands recognizing their importance to our economy. We support improved funding to promote our vital agricultural pursuits and industries.

We support the expansion and development of our harbors.

We advocate Federal legislation barring any Coast Guard jurisdiction over New Hampshire's inland lakes and waters.

Labor

We support the legislation passed which guarantees collective bargaining for public employees. We oppose strikes in the public sector.

We pledge our continued efforts to develop an economy that provides good paying jobs in the private sector.

Business and Industry

We endorse orderly expansion of employment opportunities through private enterprise. We urge the Federal government to protect our shoe and other industries from foreign competition.

We urge the Federal government to protect the interests of our fishermen by strictly enforcing the 200 mile limit against competitive foreign encroachment.

Fish and Game

We strongly feel that there should be more emphasis placed on better stocking of waters for our fishermen and more attention to game stocking for our hunters. Further, we urge a shift in emphasis from administrative — technical — research activities to field operations to conserve, replenish and increase available fish and game resources.

We strongly oppose any attempt to transfer fish and game license income to the general fund.

VETERANS

We reaffirm our aims to revive and perpetuate the degree of honor and reward for our veterans today as was theirs when they first came home from military service.

We have reestablished traditional dates for Memorial and Armistice Day. During this Bicentennial era, we urge their early adoption throughout the nation.

We strongly support the National Republican Platform that there shall be no blanket amnesty for those who fled this country in its time of national need or for those who deserted from the Armed Forces of the United States.

In addition to the Vietnam veterans bonus, already enacted, we pledge our continued support for programs promoting the educational and employment opportunities for veterans of all wars.

LAW — ORDER AND JUSTICE

The primary responsibility for raising our children and instilling proper values toward society lies with the family and not the government or its agencies.

Parental Responsibility

We support the concept of parents being held responsible for the acts of their minor children.

Forensic Unit

Republican leadership has provided funds for the establishment of an adequate forensic unit and we urge support for its construction.

Gun Ownership

We will promote legislation which will safeguard and protect the right of every responsible citizen to own, possess and use firearms for safe and lawful purposes. We will strenuously oppose all attempts to deny or diminish this right.

Judiciary

We support the need for periodic review of judicial appointments.

We continue to support mandatory long-term prison sentences without parole for convicted traffickers of hard drugs and other heinous crimes.

We will promote legislation requiring mandatory sentences for those using a deadly weapon in the commission of a felony.

We encourage the consideration of a family court system to provide greater expertise over family matters and to relieve heavy court calendars.

Law Enforcement and Correctional Personnel

Republicans have established and continued to work for adequate training, income, retirement benefits, and equipment to aid law enforcement and correctional institute personnel.

We strongly advocate improved efficiency in the State Prison operation that will ensure the safety of the public and inmates alike.

We will continue to improve rehabilitation programs for correctional institutions. We also recognize the necessity to incarcerate dangerous offenders so that our streets might be safe.

Corrections

We advocate the establishment of a Department of Corrections to consolidate parole, prison, corrections and the Youth Development Center.

We recognize as a priority the providing of adequate facilities for people requiring confinement and correction and the need for adequate separation of pre-trial and sentenced people and to this end recommend the construction of new prison facilities, updating and improving houses of correction and jails and provision for facilities for care of PINS (People in Need of Supervision).

We support a complete review of the parole system and urge consideration of introduction of sentencing without parole.

Highway Safety

We continue our efforts to reduce the carnage on our highways.

Police Academy

We advocate the establishment of a police and fire academy for law enforcement and fire personnel.

GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS

We urge a careful study of the constitutional amendments which will appear on the November ballot and that all voters act on those vital issues.

We will vigorously oppose any attempt to impose either a general sales or a general income tax upon the citizens of our State.

We strongly support reforms in the budgeting and auditing of State expenditures. We specifically endorse the concept of "performance auditing" which measures the cost effectiveness of State programs in delivering services to the citizens they are designed to serve.

We are committed to the concept that low government spending makes for low taxes and a balanced budget.

Relations with the Federal Government

The encroachments of the Federal government upon areas within the competence of State and local government has robbed these units of much of their initiative and capabilities.

We urge the Federal government to reverse those policies that intrude upon the sovereignty of New Hampshire.

We strongly urge the repeal of all Federal laws and regulations that impose unnecessary and wasteful costs on the taxpayers of New Hampshire.

State Government

The preservation of government must always be the first priority of a free people. We proudly proclaim that our citizen legislature is the best arbitrator of the public interest.

We support the concept of legislative oversight which would insure periodic review of administrative rules by the legislature.

We support the concept that Federally funded programs should be accepted by the Legislature or Governor and Council and should be finally reviewed as to their merit and accountability by the Legislature.

We support provisions that will eliminate the one year limitation on public pensions (proposed constitutional amendment no. 1).

We support legislation which insures, through periodic review of the budgets and programs of State agencies that functions which have outlined their usefulness will be discontinued. We further support performance audits to insure that public monies are spent in an effective manner and achieve the best utilization of taxpayers' dollars.

We strongly support a conflict of interest law governing the conduct of public business and we support roles for lobbying disclosure.

We endorse the concept of annual sessions of the Legislature as approved by the recent Constitutional Convention without increasing the total number of legislative days.

State Employees

State employees have received increases in pay and/or fringe benefits in each of the last four years of Republican leadership. They deserve further and substantial pay and benefit improvements.

We support overtime pay at time and a half for all classified State employees.

We support a revision and upgrading of the salary scales for unclassified State employees.

Election Law Reform

The right to vote is essential to the preservation of human liberty. We support efforts to insure that eligibility requirements for voters are minimized while guaranteeing the integrity of the electoral franchise. We pledge to avoid partisan rivalry that could frustrate efforts to revise our State's archaic, inconsistent and confusing election laws.

Transportation

Consideration should be given to the request for repeal of the State's mandatory motorcycle helmet law.

We support consolidation of the State's diverse transportation agencies, improvement of the State's air transport capability, and further development of the State Port Authority.

We pledge to continue the rejuvenation of the State's rail system already initiated under Republican leadership.

ENERGY

We recognize that an energy crisis exists.

The fuel resources we now use are limited. We therefore endorse concentration on goals meeting the increasing short-term needs for energy, developing a long-range program of conserving energy and producing it in alternative forms.

We support the construction of the Seabrook nuclear power plant, subject to existing federal safety and environmental guidelines. We are delighted that it will produce thousands of jobs for our working people and will eventually cut the cost of electricity.

We endorse more research and development in coal, wood, hydro, solar, geothermal, wind and fission sources of energy.

We encourage the re-structuring of the Public Utilities Commission to improve its responsiveness to the needs of the people. We approve of private enterprise taking the initiative, rather than more government agencies, in producing energy in all forms.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION

ELECTION REVIEW COMMISSION

There should be established a single governmental body, representative of all parties, charged with the responsibility of instructing local election officials in their duties, providing candidates and the general public with authoritative interpretations of the campaign and election laws, and providing an easily accessible, swift, and inexpensive forum for the disposition of disputes relating to campaign and election laws.

FREE ACCESS TO VOTER INFORMATION

There should be made available to candidates and officers of the political parties from the Office of the Secretary of State, without cost, accurate and complete information containing the names, addresses, and political party affiliation of all registered voters.

ELECTION BALLOTS

The election ballots should be printed in such manner as to reduce confusion with respect to the selection of candidates and to eliminate voting by the straight party circle at the top of the ballot.

HUMAN NEEDS AND SERVICES

HEALTH

Effective health care should be available within reasonable distance and time to all New Hampshire citizens without regard to personal financial circumstances. It should include education, prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, and maintenance to allow all individuals their full potential of physical and mental well-being. Attention should be directed to care in all health fields, with emphasis on the needs of the elderly and the disadvantaged.

WELFARE

The dignity of individuals, the protection of their human rights, and the provision for their basic needs should be assured for all who are unable to be self-sufficient. Self-sufficiency, to the highest degree possible, should be the goal of all New Hampshire citizens.

HOUSING

Every citizen of New Hampshire should be assured decent and safe housing at a reasonable cost. The rights of homeowners, tenants, landlords, and developers should be protected fairly, and responsibilities shared mutually and equitably.

EDUCATION

All educational opportunities should be equally available so that all citizens can reach their highest potential. Higher education or vocational training or retraining should be available to all at a cost reasonably reflecting their financial resources. Emphasis should be placed on the needs of exceptional individuals whether gifted or handicapped, and on their right to a full share of all educational resources.

SOCIAL SERVICES

The need for social service programs to help people cope with the problems of everyday living and to deal with exceptional circumstances, should be recognized. These programs should be adequately funded. All social service agencies, whether public or private, should be encouraged in acquiring all possible support, especially New Hampshire's full share of all available federal funds. Control, planning, and implementation of social service programs should be administered so as to be both available and accountable to the people. The highest possible percentage of available money should be spent on the actual service.

THE ARTS

Given the beauty of our state and the potential creativity of its people, all efforts should be made to encourage artistic expression and to make the Arts available to all people.

CULTURAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL HERITAGE

The Democratic Party pledges to preserve the cultural and environmental heritage of New Hampshire.

LAND USE

Because land is our basic natural resource and in absolutely limited supply, its use must be carefully planned and regulated. Therefore, a state-wide land use plan must be created and enforced.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

The Democratic Party pledges full support of existing environmental protection statutes and encourages Democratic leadership in the establishment of new environmental protection policies.

REGIONALIZATION

Because no local area can exist in today's world without meaningful relationships with its neighbors on the local, county, state, or interstate levels, it is essential to have mechanisms which encourage cooperation in planning on issues which confront the region as a whole while maintaining at least federal minimum standards.

CULTURAL AND ETHNIC HERITAGE

Recognizing the distinctive contributions that have been made to the growth and development of this state by culturally diverse, ethnically different, and denominationally distinct but genuinely devoted American citizens, both men and women, the Democratic Party calls for the preservation of this enriching pluralism.

Recognizing that any policy will succeed only to the extent individual citizens respect it and are involved, the Democratic Party endorses maximum participation by all.

HUMAN DIGNITY

We believe that justice, dignity, opportunity, and respect are inherent rights of all people. Age, sex, status, race, creed, national origin, or income must not be a barrier to the full rights and privileges granted to all persons under our Constitution.

We need to focus special attention on some groups within our society whose rights and privileges remain unfulfilled.

THE ELDERLY

The older citizens of our state, whose labor and efforts have continued the long process of providing the opportunity of a full life for all of us, are being neglected. The senior members of our society must be assured dignity and security.

CHILDREN

The nurture and care of all children will be one of our major concerns. The abuse and neglect of children must be the concern of all society and demand the involvement, understanding, and cooperative efforts of all citizens. We believe that all children have an absolute right to counsel in all civil or juvenile proceedings.

WOMEN

Although improvements have been made in the opportunities available to women, we must always be aware of areas where discrimination because of sex still exists. All institutions, governmental or private, must treat women equally. We, the Democratic Party, will encourage and provide an opportunity for women to assume leadership roles within the party. We will encourage women to seek public office. We, as a party, will actively pursue legislative goals which will provide equal opportunities for women in all areas of our society.

PRISONERS

We reaffirm our belief that justice and dignity must be a standard for all people. We must recognize that those who break the law and must live for a time away from society should be treated in a manner that will allow them to return to society as productive and dignified citizens.

FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION

People must have the right to express themselves free from governmental interference or censorship. This freedom should be limited only when it would infringe upon the rights of others.

PRIVACY

We believe all people have an inherent right to privacy which must be respected by all governmental agencies and private institutions.

PUBLIC ADVOCATES

The needs of citizens for fair redress of grievances against both governmental and private institutions requires the establishment of a public advocate. The office of the advocate must be unfettered by economic, political, or ideological constraints.

We must review and re-evaluate our laws and institutions to bring a standard of quality and dignity to all. When seeking solutions to our problems, we must not be bound by our present way of thinking, but must explore and be receptive to new ideas.

LABOR AND ECONOMIC PROGRESS

The Democratic Party will continue to promote administrative policy and seek legislative action that will provide a better standard of living for a larger number of New Hampshire citizens.

THE WORKING PERSON

We support workers' rights to bargain collectively and to work under good conditions at fair wages. We support: effective minimum wage legislation that covers all workers and that has the federal standard as its floor; the right to organize and bargain collectively for all workers including public employees, and teachers and staffs of educational institutions; conditions of public employment that provide a standard for private employers and that include cost-of-living adjustments and extra pay for overtime; opposition to any laws, including so-called right-to-work laws that undermine labor unions.

EQUAL ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

Equal opportunity and pay for women and older citizens must be realized. We support: pointed demonstration of equality in all public employment and government service; representation of women, older citizens, organized labor, and other frequently excluded groups on the public and private councils that make policy in the state.

FINANCES

Our objective is to avoid unnecessary changes in the tax/revenue system, and to administer existing taxes fairly and efficiently, to distribute revenues so they go to areas and activities that need them. We support: the reform of our systems of taxation so that wealthier citizens with unusual opportunities to shelter income do not avoid paying their fair share of the public burden; the reform of our system of property taxation so that every citizen is treated fairly in terms of ability to pay; a change in social security and other payroll taxes so that they no longer take a larger share of a low income than of a high income.

GOVERNMENTAL RESPONSIVENESS

Departments of the State Government must be responsive agencies that recognize the rights of their clients. We support: the elimination of lifetime appointments that lead to negative, irresponsible administration; positive operation that helps the unemployed or other constituents to find new jobs or build new careers and that encourages those who need them most to take advantage of their rights to guidance and benefits; unemployment benefits and workmen's compensation that keep pace with inflation and offer extended coverage to those that face long-term problems; denial of benefits only when the agency has presented appropriate job opportunities to the worker.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

We encourage economic development in areas that need it most in forms that do not destroy our environment or our way of life and in ways in which the cost does not exceed the benefit. We support: the focus of development effort on areas of highest unemployment; local review of all plans for siting plants and the roads and other facilities required to support them; the thesis that agricultural use of land should not be penalized; the maintenance of a viable transportation system.

GENERAL ELECTION, 1976

The General Election was held November 2, 1976. In the following summary, the full name, residence, party designation and total number of votes are given; in the tables beyond only the last name and party designation appear. Republican is designated by the letter r; Democratic by the letter d; r and d, or d and r, indicate an election by both parties; l indicates Libertarian; and ind. indicates Independent.

In each contest the person or persons, if more than one, receiving the largest number of votes, are elected.

RECOUNTS AFTER THE GENERAL ELECTION

In this chapter may be found a brief description of the recounts of ballots held by the Secretary of State after the General Election of November 2, 1976.

In all, eighteen recounts were conducted: — one for State Senator District No. 16, fifteen for Representatives, one for Supervisor of the Checklist, and one for Moderator. The recounts were held November 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1976, in the Drill Hall at the National Guard Armory, Concord. As a result of the recounts, there were no changes of candidates.

Below, in the first column are the figures as officially returned to the Secretary of State following the election. The second column contains the recount figures. The names of the persons elected are designated by asterisks.

RECOUNTS

On November 26, 1976, the Governor and Council voted to accept petitions to recount the ballots cast on Question No. 3, the proposed amendment relative to annual sessions of the Legislature, submitted by Aileen G. Katz, President, League of Women Voters, et al.; and Question No. 5, the proposed amendment to provide that a town, ward, or unincorporated place may be divided into two or more representative districts, submitted by Norwood Keeney, of Hudson, et al.; which questions were proposed to the voters of New Hampshire at the November 2, 1976 election, and ordered the Secretary of State to recount said ballots.

The recounts were held January 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 25, 26, and 27, 1977, in the Drill Hall at the National Guard Amory, Concord. Neither question received the required two-third votes of the qualified voters present and voting upon the said questions.*

Question No. 3

Are you in favor of amending the Constitution to provide for annual sessions of the legislature and to allow mileage payments for actual attendance for a maximum of ninety legislative days per biennium?

*The ballots from Mason, Newmarket, and Nottingham, totaling 2730, could not be located for recount purposes, and during the recount the original figures as reported to this office were used, in accordance with the Supreme Court opinion.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Executive Department

Concord

November 24, 1976

Be it known that I, Meldrim Thomson, Jr., Governor of the State of New Hampshire, in obedience to the request of the Constitutional Convention holden, at Concord, the second Wednesday of May, 1974, and the 1975 General Court, do hereby proclaim to the people of this State that the Constitution of New Hampshire is amended as provided for in Questions No. 2, 6, 7, and 8, which were submitted by said Constitutional Convention and the 1975 General Court to the qualified voters of the State at the meetings held in the several towns, city wards, and places in this State, on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1976.

The alteration and amendments in said Constitution covered by these questions have been approved and adopted, and the Constitution is thus amended by the suffrages of more than two-thirds of the qualified voters present at the said meetings, and voting upon the said questions.

Given under my hand and the seal of said State, at the Council Chambers, this 24th day of November, A.D., 1976, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and first.

/s/ Meldrim Thomson, Jr.
Governor

By the Governor
Acting Secretary of State
/s/ Edward C. Kelley
